Securing South Africa's Democracy Defense Development And Security In Transition:

Securing South Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra,1997      Securing South Africa's Democracy G.

Cawthra,1997-07-16 This book examines the defence and security challenges facing the new South Africa in the context of development and nation building priorities The transformation of security policy during the transition from apartheid and since the April 1994 elections is examined Challenges facing the defence force and the police service are examined and the relationships between defence development and domestic and external security are explored in an integrated way which points to a policy framework for security in the developing world      The Obligation of Empire James J. Hentz,2021-12-14

Some of the nation's most respected scholars of international affairs examine the debates over U S grand strategy in light of U S security policies and interests in tactical regions around the world The contributors begin by describing the four grand strategies currently competing for dominance of U S foreign policy neo isolationism argues that the United States should not become involved in conflicts outside specifically defined national interests selective engagement proposes that the United States despite its position as the world's only remaining superpower should limit its involvement in foreign affairs cooperative security advocates that the United States is not and should not act as an imperial country primacy asserts that the United States is an empire and therefore it should conduct an expansive foreign policy Focusing on regions that present new challenges to U S grand strategy such as Sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and Latin America the contributors offer the most current examinations of U S policies and assess the effectiveness of competing strategies in each region The

Obligation of Empire offers an innovative set of foreign policy initiatives that explore the tensions between global agendas and regionalist approaches Contributors Andrew J Bacevich Doug Bandow Dale Davis Thomas Donnelly James J Hentz

Clifford Kiracofe Charles Kupchan Jeffrey Stark S Frederick Starr and Brantley Womack James J Hentz associate professor of international studies at the Virginia Military Institute is the coeditor of New and Critical Security and Regionalism Beyond the Nation State      Defensive Restructuring of the Armed Forces in Southern Africa Bjørn Møller,Gavin Cawthra,2019-01-15

Published in 1997 the work explores the reorientation of security policies and the accompanying restructuring of the armed forces going on in Southern Africa under entirely new circumstances Democracy has come to South Africa the civil wars in Angola and Mozambique have ended and the region is establishing a regional framework for cooperation While covering the entire region a special focus is placed on South Africa which is predestined to play a leading role but which is struggling with the legacy of the apartheid regime and its repeated aggressions against neighbouring states A defensive restructuring of the South African of the South African military is an element in the building of mutual trust The implications of such defensive restructuring to a non offensive defence are described in detail In addition to the analytical contribution the work also contains central documents and a bibliography      Demilitarisation and Peace-Building in Southern Africa Peter

Batchelor,2018-12-17 First published in 2004 this work is based on a collaborative research project this trilogy considers the dynamics of demilitarisation and peace building in southern Africa in the aftermath of major violent conflicts The overall aim of the research is to support and facilitate the achievement of sustainable peace and human development in southern Africa by analysing demilitarisation and peace building processes in the region and identifying policy options and interventions for peace building The central focus of the research is the extent to which demilitarisation following the termination of wars has contributed to broad processes of peace building in the affected region Has the military in southern Africa downsized and refocused towards new roles Has there been a peace dividend allowing more investment in economic and human development thereby dealing with some of the root causes of conflict Volume I provides a conceptual framework for the analysis of demilitarisation and peace building processes applicable particularly in the southern Africa context This volume argues that a broad concept of peace building has to take into account economic political social and cultural factors at the local national and regional level

The South African Truth Commission K. Christie, 2000-05-26 Over the last thirty years many political transitions from authoritarian regimes and dictatorial political systems have been accompanied by Truth Commissions Since 1974 there have been over twenty of these Commissions established in countries as diverse as Argentina Chile Uruguay Bolivia El Salvador Ethiopia the Philippines and Germany among others Perhaps the most important Truth Commission of our time is the South African one which also seeks to act as a mechanism for reconciliation in a divided society The South African conflict was extremely long and violent its victims suffered traumatic experiences and in part one of the Commission's functions is to allow their story to be told This book tries to examine the Truth Commission here and the issues that surround it assessing different versions of the South African past and the complex negotiations leading to the establishment of the Commission and the complex politics of amnesty justice and nation building

Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn, 2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples

Beyond Settlement Vanessa E. Shields, Nicholas Baldwin, 2008 Political ideological and ethnic conflicts have resulted in countless deaths the creation of millions of refugees the destruction of livelihoods and widespread human suffering to say nothing of the economic destruction This book examines institution building and security sector reform in conflict states by analyzing eighteen case studies covering eleven countries and six decades With regard to institution building there is an analysis of four democratic levers elections the legislature the executive and devolution focusing on how the structure and function of these political institutions contribute to the management and reduction of conflict and to the consolidation of fragile democracies Concerning security sector reform there is an analysis of how military police and intelligence institutions are reformed in states that are coming out of conflict states that are moving beyond settlement Some of the conflicts in this study are ongoing Palestine while others have been resolved Spain South Africa while still others are in a peace building or immediate post conflict stage Northern Ireland

Demilitarisation and Peace-building in Southern Africa: Concepts and processes Peter Batchelor, Kees Kingma, Guy Lamb, 2004 Volume I provides a conceptual framework for the analysis of demilitarization and peace building processes applicable particularly in the Southern Africa context This volume argues that a broad concept of peace building has to take into account economic political social and cultural factors at the local national and regional level

Transforming the Robocops Monique Marks, 2005 The structure uniform equipment and training of the South African Police Service have changed since apartheid says Marks sociology U of KwaZulu Natal the force proclaims a community oriented service ethic hires more women and black personnel in high positions and is rarely rather than often excessively violent during demonstrations and protests Still she asks how much the police have changed and whether it is really to change them or indeed to change the police anywhere

Governing Insecurity Gavin Cawthra, Robin Luckham, 2003-04 Democratic institutions in the post Cold War era have come to be seen as the only legitimate forms of governance But the longstanding legacy and frequent incidence of military rule over the past half century continue to threaten newly instituted democratic regimes The disintegration of order and government in many societies in recent years under the pressures of violent conflict and internal war poses even more intractable obstacles to the institutionalization of stable democracy The contributors to this volume explore the challenges of establishing democratic accountability and control over the military and other security establishments including non state armed formations in countries which have either been the victims of authoritarian military rule or wracked by violent internal conflict They examine both successful democratic transitions and failed ones in a wide range of countries and the possible role of regional interventions and institutions

Neoliberalism, Civil Society and Security in Africa Pádraig Risteard Carmody, 2007-10-17 Free market policies have been in operation across Africa for the past twenty five years yet they have failed to reverse deepening poverty on the continent This book explores why such policies continue to be implemented despite their failure and the ways in which they have been reinvented by socialization depoliticization regionalization and securitization The impacts of these policies on security are traced through case studies of Ethiopia Zimbabwe and South Africa and ways to transcend neoliberalism on the continent are also explored
