Security And Strategy In The New Europe:

Security and Strategy in the New Europe Colin McInnes,1992 How have priorities for European security changed in the wake of the cold war Can existing security institutions meet the challenges of the 1990s The New Europe Frances Scott,1991 The New Europe ,1992 The EU and the European Security Strategy Sven Biscop,Jan Joel Andersson,2007-09-12 This book offers a comprehensive vision of how the EU can achieve the ambitious objectives of the European Security Strategy and become an effective global actor as the strategy helps to forge a global Europe The New European Union and Its Global Strategy Valentin Naumescu,2019-10-17 In a relatively short period of time the European Project has faced an incredibly diverse spectrum of crises and challenges From the Eurozone crisis to the sovereign debt crisis and from the migration crisis to Brexit the European Union has found itself confronted with unprecedented internal and external threats and pressures The Global Strategy of 2016 and the Permanent Structured Cooperation PESCO in the field of defence of 2017 are just two of the new strategies and policies to which it has turned Whether the Franco German engine will succeed in surpassing this critical moment and trigger a deep reform of the European Union remains to be seen Raising its level of strategic ambition the European Union projects itself as a global actor in the system of international relations reshaping its ties with the United States China and Russia However European security along with the topics of European politics and society remain subjects of intense debate This volume offers a number of possible answers to various questions regarding the future of the European Union and its relationships with the rest of the world Based on a variety of perspectives from international relations European studies political science economics and cultural studies the contributions here address the conundrum of the EU s transformations Military Strategies of the New European Allies Håkan Edström,Jacob Westberg,2022-12-30 This book analyses how and to what extent ex communist states have adjusted their defence strategies since joining the EU and NATO and how differences and similarities between their strategies can be explained Between 1999 and 2013 four phases of enlargement took place when the European Union EU and NATO allowed 11 new former communist states to enter both organisations These states share some common attributes and experiences related to strategic culture and common experiences during the Cold War era that can potentially explain similarities in behaviour and preferences among them However the strategic adjustments among these states are far from uniform In an effort to explain these differences the book introduces three intervening variables 1 differences in relative power and position in the international system 2 national geographical characteristics and 3 historical experiences related to formative periods of state building processes as well as wars and armed conflicts Empirically the book strives to present and analyse the defence strategies of each of the new allies by conducting a structured focused comparison of official strategic documents from the twenty first century for each of the 11 cases Theoretically and methodologically it introduces an analytical framework enabling us to explain both similarities and differences in the formulation of the strategies of the 11 states and to shed light on their external and internal efforts to promote their strategic interest by operationalising the dependent variable defence strategy The analytical framework combines elements of structural realism with classical realism and constructivist research on unit level characteristics related to relative power and perceptions of strategic exposure This book will be of much interest to students of strategic studies European Union policy NATO and International Relations in general
