Quality Learning For Student Teachers University Tutors Educational Practices:

Quality Learning for Student Teachers Della Fish, 1995 Resources in Education, 1995 The Journal of Education for Teaching at 40 Peter Gilroy, 2018-10-19 In 2015 the Journal of Education for Teaching celebrated 40 years of original contributions on the subject of international teacher education with the publication of an anniversary virtual special issue Its unique contribution to debates about the preparation and lifelong learning of teachers in a variety of fields including medical education and language education have been expressed in a variety of formats and international contexts These include high quality academic papers using innovative qualitative and quantitative methodologies symposia in the form of Platonic dialogues and even critical positions expressed in verse This virtual special issue was freely available online throughout 2015 but the strong demand for the papers has prompted their re publication in this volume with the addition of several more articles Taken together this collection will allow the reader to experience the variety of the dozen or so international contexts represented in the journal and its academic quality Included in the volume is the original Editorial from the first issue of the journal The fact that the points made in this forty year old piece still ring true suggests that the threats to high quality teacher education remain much the same as they did four decades or more ago The Journal of Education for Teaching continues to provide an indispensable platform for colleagues to make their voices heard in what appears to be an increasingly shrill evidence free environment Long may it do so School-Based Teacher Education Anne Campbell, Ian Kane, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1998 The idea for this book came from involvement in a research project the Mentoring in Schools project funded by the Esmée Fairbairn Charitable Trust between September 1993 and July 1995 The book also draws on local evaluation studies of previous pilot projects such as the Articled Teacher Scheme and partnership initiatives with primary schools A readable interactive book which presents the phenomenological aspects of school based training the human face of mentoring and which tells how people actually experience school based teacher education partnerships

Mentor Development in the Education of Modern Language Teachers Carol Gray, 2001-01-01 This book investigates a number of case studies of language mentoring in action with a view to prompting readers to reflect upon their own practice as teacher educators Recent research on mentoring teacher effectiveness language teaching and language teacher education is combined to provide a background to the case studies helping to illuminate general principles and issues
