Quantitative Problem Solving in Maternal, Child, and Adolescent Health Jeffrey B. Gould, 1994 Population Education Accessions List, 1996 Newsletter, 1980 Health Care of Women and Children in Developing Countries Helen M. Wallace, Kanti Giri, Carlos V. Serrano, 1995 After an overview of women's health including issues such as poverty family planning programmes and urbanization this comprehensive volume features over 70 essays by doctors health care practitioners and policy makers writing on sexual and reproductive health maternal and child health and adolescent health Bibliography tables graphs Self Study Report for Accreditation University of California, Berkeley. School of Public Health, 1994 Burden of Girlhood Neera Kuckreja Sohoni, 1995 This book examines the status of girls and demonstrates that acculturation and development processes favor boys rather than girls On account of their age and gender girls experience the consequences of gender discrimination even more than women and the burden of this discrimination is borne by girls universally irrespective of societal or personal socioeconomic levels Publications Index California Birth Defects Monitoring Program, 1997 Federal Register, 1996-03-22 Attachment Assessment in treatments, prevention and intervention programs Silvia Salcuni, 2015-05-13 Attachment theory assessment and research offers a broad far reaching view of human functioning and it can enrich a psychologist's understanding of subjects and their relational adjustment both in clinical and non clinical settings Ongoing research in attachment has led to a number of individual treatments and prevention and intervention programs The assessment of an individual's attachment organization can play a crucial role in explaining and previewing the unfolding treatment the relational adjustments or concerns and the psychological well being We hope to receive empirical papers that give evidence for the usefulness of attachment assessment in both clinical e.g. patients with Eating Disorder or Axis II psychotherapy patients or not clinical population e.g. Adoptive and or foster families or couples Mother infant assessment in prevention field These papers should include methodological issues and information about the participants the methods used to assess attachment the process of scorer training and the availability of the manual used to obtain inter scorer reliability Case studies may be of interest to the extent that they demonstrate the value of a systematic approach to attachment material A range of theoretical perspectives is welcome as well presentation of new emergent tools on attachment Because Frontiers in Psychology is an international journal each empirical paper should comment on the international implications of the findings and discuss its cross cultural use Such comments may include for example its linguistic specificity its robustness in translation and the cross cultural generalizability of the constructs and behaviors of the measure and its usual correlates Cross cultural generalizability is not however a requirement

Management of Breast Diseases Ismail Jatoi, Manfred Kaufmann, 2010-02-11 In 2002 Lippincott published the Manual of Breast Diseases edited by Professor Ismail Jatoi The current book Management of Breast Diseases is an adaptation of that manual with Professor Manfred Kaufmann of the Goethe University of Frankfurt serving as co editor Most of the chapters from the original manual have been either extensively revised or discarded and several new chapters added This text contains more material than the original manual but it is still intended as a basic guide for the wide spectrum of clinicians surgeons gynecologists oncologists radiation oncologists internists general practitioners who treat breast diseases both benign and malignant To compile this text we assembled experts from throughout the world Thus this text provides not only a broad overview of breast diseases but also highlights different perspectives from different parts of the world Yet it is worth noting that the management of breast cancer is now largely predicated on evidence based medicine Several large randomized prospective trials have demonstrated the efficacy of breast cancer screening and chemoprevention Other large trials have addressed the impact of systemic therapy radiotherapy and variations in local therapy on breast cancer mortality Many of these landmark trials are discussed in this text and they clearly have had a beneficial effect Indeed since about 1990 breast cancer mortality rates have declined substantially in most industrialized countries and this trend is expected to continue in the years ahead
