Smart Rivals Feng Zhu, Bonnie Yining Cao, 2024-08-20 A fresh research based look at how companies can better compete on their own terms with tech giants from a Harvard Business School professor and a former Bloomberg journalist Companies are fighting the wrong battle The consensus has been to learn the best practices from tech giants and then imitate them But new paths for growth aren't created by imitation they're forged by radical differentiation In Smart Rivals Harvard Business School professor Feng Zhu and former Bloomberg journalist Bonnie Yining Cao show business leaders how to create competitive advantages by offering product features and benefits that tech giants and other competitors cannot match in the digital AI age Taking readers on a global journey Zhu and Cao showcase a variety of companies including Domino's Nike and Sephora and fascinating case studies such as Belle the leading women's footwear retailer in China EbonyLife Nigeria's top media conglomerate and Telepass Italy's popular electronic toll payment service Through these diverse examples they illustrate how companies identify their path for growth in the digital age by leveraging their unique capabilities Drawing on original research and insights gleaned from leaders in a wide range of industries Smart Rivals is a blueprint for uncovering your company's hidden strengths It will help you spark innovative solutions and capabilities including new products services strategies and advantages that mere imitation could never provide BM/E, 1988

Responses to a Pandemic Anna Gotlib, 2022-09-08 What does it mean to be in the middle of a pandemic for us for our country or for the world How do our current inequalities and injustices become amplified by the demands of the pandemic and what if anything can be done Who is most impacted and why does it seem that so many of the same people are once again deemed expendable and less than How do we explain COVID 19 and its attendant traumas to our children and what do we teach them about hope justice grief and the role of imagination in survival And once the worst has passed how do we start again and what should we care about as we contemplate individual and collective repair In this collection of public and political philosophy philosophers come together to address these and other questions born of a devastating pandemic to which they are neither objective spectators nor external observers insulated by the passage of time The contributors to this volume are both grounded in and immediately affected by their own lived realities as source material for the questions that move and motivate them Contributors Alexios Alexander J S Biehl Eyja M Brynjarsdóttir Daniel Conway Barrett Emerick Anna Gotlib Ruth Groenhout Claire Katz Eva Feder Kittay Corey McCall Jamie Lindemann Nelson Jennifer Scuro Kevin Timpe Vanessa Wills Mastering Creativity in Organizations Andrés Hatum, 2017-10-27 This book identifies best practices leadership styles and organizational structures for the stimulation of organizational creativity with an aim to help any company not just companies in creative fields or industries become an organization in which new ideas flow new processes are developed and new products are brought to market Managers will find case studies describing exceptional organizational creativity and practical takeaways that can be applied in their own firms Students will find concrete analytical frameworks for thinking about creativity in organizations and academics will find a different approach to the study of creativity one that is grounded in practice      Broadcasting ,1977-10      Pandemic in the Metropolis Anastasia Loukaitou-Sideris,Alexandre M. Bayen,Giovanni Circella,R. Jayakrishnan,2022-07-22 This book brings together reports of original empirical studies which explore the impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic on urban mobility and transportation and the associated policy responses Focusing on the California region the book draws on this local experience to formulate general lessons for other regions and metropolitan areas The book examines how the COVID 19 pandemic has had different impacts on vulnerable populations in cities It explores the pandemic s impacts on the transportation industry in particular public transit but also on other industries and economic interests that rely on transportation such as freight trucking retail and food industries and the gig economy It investigates the effect of the viral outbreak on automobile traffic and associated air quality and traffic safety as well as on alternative forms of work shopping and travel which have developed to accommodate the conditions it has forced on society With quantitative data supported with illustrations and graphs transportation professionals policymakers and students can use this book to learn about policies and strategies that may instigate positive change in urban transport in the post pandemic period      Broadcast Engineering ,1979      Television/radio Age ,1984
