Piper's Places Richard Ingrams, John Piper, 1983 For more than sixty years John Piper has painted drawn photographed and recorded his impressions of the landscapes and buildings of the British Isles His interest in the natural order has ranged from the gentle adapted landscape of Romney Marsh to the rocky wilderness of Snowdonia His passion for buildings extends from the palladian country house to the cottage built in the vernacular from an ornate Somerset church tower to the dusty clutter of a vestry This association with topographical subjects has been sustained by many years work on the Shell Guides to the English and Welsh counties The Guides of which he was co editor with John Betjeman and subsequently sole editor financed as Anthony West has put it an exploration and penetration of the English and Welsh scene of an intensity and range which few artists have been able to undertake This book presents for the first time in one volume the range of John Piper's topographical work in the British Isles Richard Ingrams who has walked over and written about much of the country recorded by Piper himself tells the story with engaging and very appropriate informality of the latter's life with the landscape natural and created of Britain the influences on this aspect of his work and the people who have joined him in it including John Betjeman J M Richards and Geoffrey Grigson The text is enhanced by Piper's own reflections some occasioned by the book itself others drawn from working notebooks diaries and articles The illustrations reproduce aquatints drawings collages oil paintings and watercolours Some of these paintings have been specially painted for the book and many more are reproduced here for the first time Piper's Places invites those who read it and look at its illustrations to observe afresh the
