THE VESPER SERIES BOOK THREE

Samantha Murphy isn't afraid of the hallucinations that plague her nights. Phantoms aren't real. They can't hurt her. But then she meets a phantom who shakes her faith in her own psychosis: the impossibly fast and charming Sychar. He's a Vesper... enslaved by a dark master and forbidden to consort with humans.

As Samantha and Sychar embark on a relationship with the hottest passion and most terrifying stakes, Sychar proves to her how real he is. Demons exist, and this one cares about her, crazy and all.

When a freak accident looks suspiciously like a suicide attempt, Samantha's doctors load her down with medication. And though Sychar swears he won't disappear with the rest of her madness, her deepest fears come true when he takes off on a deadly mission and doesn't come back.

Samantha's sanity spirals further from her reach in his absence, but a reckless search at a train station shocks Samantha's reality back into her grasp. Sychar's in serious trouble, and her only allies are the demons she fears.

But the darkness she's seen in her life pales in comparison to what she must face—and defeat—to save the man she loves.
