Amelia Barikin

Philippe Parreno Fade To Black:

Fade to Black Philippe Parreno, 2006 Fade to Black is the series title for a group of projects organized or triggered by conceptual artist Philippe Parreno over the last 10 years. Parreno is the initiator but has sometimes pursued his work in collaboration with colleagues such as Rirkrit Tiravanija with whom he animated ventriloquist's dummies or Liam Gillick with whom he hung a fictional commercial banner along the highway in Bangkok. Fade to Black gathers 11 titled images of those projects each photograph testimony to an action or ephemeral installation and offers the images in glow in the dark ink that must be exposed to light before it can be seen and allowed to fade away again in the dark. Fade to Black therefore exists without being visible until the viewer makes it so and then only for a brief predetermined window an ideal product for an artist who enjoys using time as a material. Each ghostly image in this unique large format limited edition artist's book is bound as a detachable print.

Parallel Presents Amelia Barikin, 2012-09-14 The first book length art historical examination of a major contemporary French artist. Over the past two decades French artist Pierre Huyghe has produced an extraordinary body of work in constant dialogue with temporality. Investigating the possibility of a hypothetical mode of timekeeping, Parallel Presents Huyghe has researched the architecture of the incomplete, directed a puppet opera, founded a temporary school, established a pirate television station, staged celebrations, scripted scenarios and journeyed to Antarctica in search of a mythological penguin. In this first book length art historical examination of Huyghe and his work, Amelia Barikin traces the artist's continual negotiation with the time codes of contemporary society. Barikin finds in Huyghe's projects an alternate way of thinking about history, a topological historicity that deprograms or reprograms temporal formats. Barikin offers pioneering analyses of Huyghe's lesser known early works as well as sustained readings of later critically acclaimed projects including No Ghost Just a Shell 2000, L'Expédition scintillante 2002 and A Journey That Wasn't 2005. She emphasizes Huyghe's concepts of freed time and the open present in which anything might happen. Bringing together an eclectic array of subjects and characters from moon walking to situationist practices from Snow White to Gilles Deleuze, Parallel Presents offers a highly original account of the driving forces behind Huyghe's work.

Art on Paper, 2006 Fireflies Philippe Parreno, 2019. Generally known for his installation work encompassing sculpture, video and soundscapes, Fireflies focuses wholly on Parreno's lesser known drawings. The drawings collected here showcase a delicate personal touch as they were created while Parreno was ill with cancer and were sent to his friends. In Parreno's drawings the fireflies' light is often created by an absence of darkness or pigment. This striking contrast perfectly encapsulates the bioluminescent glow emanating from the insect's abdomen. The book is edited by Hans Ulrich Obrist, artistic director of the Serpentine Galleries. An interview with the artist by Obrist and an essay by Belgian philosopher Vinciane Despret accompany the works.
