Philippine Folk Media In Development Communication:

Philippine Folk Media in Development Communication Victor T. Valbuena, 1986 Rethinking Development Communication Neville Jayaweera, Sarath Amunugama, 1987 Development Communication Report, 1990 Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes Beyond National Sovereignty Kaarle Nordenstreng, Herbert I. Schiller, 1993-01-01 This volume is a collection of contemporary commentaries on international communication issues with the concept of national sovereignty as the departure point Offering readers an introduction to current and emerging concerns it provides the basic analytical tools needed to understand the issues involved Problems are examined from the perspectives of journalism social sciences international politics law and emerging technology topics include mass media communication across borders communication satellites and Third World nations and the need to establish a new world information order Asian Communication Handbook, 1993 Media Asia, 1991 Communication for Rural Mobilization and Development Florangel Rosario-Braid, 1984 Philippine Communication Today Crispin C. Maslog, 2007 Communication Theory Wimal Dissanayake, 1988 Radio, Television, and Film Research Rainer Kabel, 1987 This booklet wants to show that the research need not be a rigorously structured scientific investigation undertaken to bear out an academic premise or for statistical purposes The less formal more easily handled forms of field work such as interviews casual talks audience observation and group discussions can all be used as well These methods are cheaper can be conducted without the help of professional researchers and yield results which are quickly evaluated and can be used immediately for programming and scheduling The Political Economy of the Communication Revolution and the Third World Neville Jayaweera, 1986 The Philippine Social Sciences in the Life of the Nation: The history and development of social science disciplines in the Philippines, 1999 Perspectives on Indigenous Communication in Africa: Theory and applications Kwasi Ansu-Kyeremeh, 1998 Philippine Studies, 2000 Folk Media and Development Communication Neville Jayaweera, 1991 The Cultural Dimension of Development Dennis M. Warren, Leendert Jan Slikkerveer, David Brokensha, Wim Dechering, 1995 The potential of indigenous knowledge is being recognized for international development This book argues that local people do know their environment and that this knowledge has to be taken into account in planning and implementing accessible and effective development The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen, 1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia Part II provides the setting of space and time Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order Print and Broadcast Media in the South Pacific Romeo B. Abundo,1985 African Science and Technology Education Into the New Millennium Prem Naidoo,1998 This text asks whether science and technology education can meet the challenges of the coming century Through a compendium of papers by leading African and international educators this book reviews the disappointments of past decades
