Martin,2005-11-08 Philosophical Conversations is a light informal and contemporary introduction to the study of philosophy Using a dialogue format Robert M Martin delves into the traditional questions of philosophy in a manner that readers will find engaging These substantive yet entertaining conversations emphasize that philosophical questions are contested and open ended The characters in each dialogue advocate different answers to questions on religion ethics personal identity and other topics equitably and without naming any clear winners Philosophic positions are presented with maximum clarity and persuasiveness so that readers can appreciate all sides of an issue and make their own choices An excellent tool for newcomers to philosophy Philosophical Conversations provides the necessary background for further study while vividly portraying the back and forth argument that is essential to the philosophical method The Transformative Philosophical Dialogue Shai Tubali,2023-09-25 This book explores dialogue as a transformative form of philosophical practice by unveiling the method behind the unique dialogue developed by mystic and thinker Jiddu Krishnamurti 1895 1986 While Krishnamurti himself generally rejected the cultivation of systems and techniques Shai Tubali argues that there are easily identifiable patterns through which Krishnamurti strove to realize his dialogical aims For this reason he refers to this method whose existence has evaded Krishnamurti s followers and scholars alike as the Krishnamurti dialogue He suggests that these discursive patterns serve to broaden our understanding of the possibilities of philosophical and religious dialogues and further illuminate established forms of dynamic discourse such as the Socratic method Inspired by Pierre Hadot s revolutionary reading of the classical Greco Roman texts the author centers his attention on Plato s Socratic dialogues and the guru disciple conversations in the Hindu Upanishads which fall within the scope of what may be termed the transformative dialogue dialogues that have been written with the intention of bringing about a transformation in the mind of the interlocutor and reader and reorienting their way of life This text appeals to students as well as researchers and suggests that the Krishnamurti dialogue is not only a continuation and development of the transformative dialogue but that it also amalgamates ingredients of classical Western philosophy and South Asian mysticism Moreover this type of dialogue encourages readers to revisit the lost practice of transformative philosophy in that it reveals new pathways of philosophical and religious inquiry that bear thought provoking practical implications Thinking about Thinking Adriaan Theodoor

Peperzak,2012 This essay in metaphilosophy aims at showing that philosophy is indeed a conversation by clarifying many if not all features that determine the philosophical practice as provocative responsive dialogical communitarian educational and transformative Since philosophical thought is also rooted in a dimension of faith this basic relation is made explicit and concretized through analyses of a particular form of interaction between faith and philosophy

Peperzak,2022 Thinking about Thinking examines philosophy from a variety of perspectives as a practice realized by persons who communicate with one another while reflecting about the meaning of human life and thought Without forgetting the logical and methodological conditions of systematic thought the author insists on the intimate connections that tie all philosophical texts and conversations to the lives from which they emerge As product of an individual thinker who thanks to individual teachers has been familiarized with particular traditions of a particular culture each philosophy is unique If it is a good one it is also revealing for many perhaps even for all other philosophers At the same time all thinking is addressed to individual interlocutors each of whom responds to it by transforming it into a different philosophy This fact invites us to explore the dialogical dimension of thinking which in turn refers us to the communitarian and historical contexts from which solitude as well as solidarity competition alliances and friendships in thought emerge
