Playthings and Playtimes Hannah Field,Seth Giddings,Ben Highmore,2025-10-29 In 2024 at the Barbican Art Gallery in London the Mexico based Belgian artist Francis Al s exhibited films of children from across the world playing with sticks hoops marbles and other toys The implication was clear play feels and looks like a universal language but takes on specific local forms Using this as a starting point Playthings and Playtimes explores the conflict and contradictions that circulate when play is simultaneously recognized as a species attribute part of human nature and as something crucially differentiated across time and space by design technology sentiment pedagogic values and so on The chapters in this volume demonstrate this interplay between the fixed and the mutable Topics range from the elaborate miniature worlds made by H G Wells and his sons to digitized fidget spinners from avant garde Uruguayan artist Joaqu n Torres Garc a s wooden blocks to the playground spaces of Kuwait and from the much maligned plastic toy to the new museum Young V A Together they bring play and the world of feelings into sustained contact with the history of material culture and design psychoanalysis childhood studies and other disciplines concerned with play culture In the process Playthings and Playtimes investigates key elements of a humanities approach to the modern world through the prism of play's affective materiality New Directions in Childhood Studies James M. Curtis, 2024-01-04 New Directions in Childhood Studies Innocence Trauma and Agency in the Twenty first Century acknowledges that the conceptual frameworks for understanding the experience of childhood in the twentieth century are no longer adequate and offers important updates to the construct of American childhood The chapters in this collection examine contemporary children's literature film and video games to explore the ways in which everyday realities like trauma disaster and death impact the experience of childhood in America today In many ways the essays show the narratives blur traditional lines between children's and adult content taking children series as subjects while also guiding them through the processes of dealing with the particular challenges Collectively the essays develop a more contemporary construct of the American child and offer new insights into what that construction might mean for contemporary American society and culture
