Alastair M. Morrison, Dimitrios Buhalis, 2023-09-25 This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of trends and issues in the global supply and demand on tourism. With contributions from 70 authors, this Handbook showcases a diverse range of perspectives with insights from around the globe. It reviews the interactions among trends and issues and it emphasises the importance of tracking and interpreting these on a global scale. The book is organized into three parts with Part I focusing on supply side trends including transport, attractions, culture, heritage, tourism technology, policies and destination management. Part II critically reviews the external factor trends including the impact of terrorism, multi crisis destinations, Generation Z's important contributions to the sector, the regulation of sharing economy platforms and nature tourism in future. Part III focuses on market led trends such as bleisure, glamping, VFR travel, transformational tourism and new trends in wellness tourism following the post COVID era. The book also provides predictions for the upcoming decades. This Handbook will be a vital tool for researchers, students and practitioners in the tourism and hospitality sector to further develop their knowledge and expertise in the field. It examines business and policy implications offering guidance for developing sustainable competitive advantage.

Swarms, Viral Writing, and the Local Carl Whithaus, 2025-04-15 Swarms, Viral Writing and the Local examines the social and rhetorical dynamics around emerging writing technologies. Carl Whithaus argues that these dynamics work across networked publics as patterns of behavior and ways of interacting through and with multimodal texts. This rhetorical analysis of the production and reception of born digital rhetoric shows the ongoing and evolving impacts of online public discourse that can lead to bad restaurant reviews or the subversion of democracy. It is a networked process that gains significance because of the interplay and tensions between the global and the local. As these texts are created, distributed, received and then recreated and shared again in viral ways, different messages resonate across media ecologies. Whithaus documents how emerging social dynamics shape and are shaped by digital writing, reading and distribution technologies.

Marketing for Tourism, Hospitality & Events Simon Hudson, Louise Hudson, 2023-12-04 This cutting edge and engaging student textbook, now in a second edition, provides essential coverage of marketing principles for Tourism, Hospitality and Events, with a strong focus on the increasing global and digital aspects of these industries. The text has been updated to include all the latest industry developments, practice and research, including the lasting impacts of Covid 19 on consumer behaviour and in turn the tourism, hospitality and events industries, as well as the accelerated role of digitalization and use of new technologies such as artificial intelligence and the metaverse, both of which are changing how people conceive of travel and experiences whilst blurring the boundaries between what is real and virtual. Popular chapter features such as Lessons from a Marketing Guru featuring personal insights from real world practitioners and Digital Spotlights which highlight the ways in which technology has transformed tourism, hospitality and events, and Marketing in Action case studies continue to help bring the text to life through fun and relevant examples from a wide variety of organizations and regions across the globe. This textbook is essential reading for any university or college course looking at marketing in relation to
