In few lines, before the bullet points, summarize your main responsibilities and provide information about the organization. For your present position you can use present tense, for the rest, use past tense.

- Highlights your most relevant qualifications and accomplishment for the job by listing them first. If you have specific numbers or percentages to quantify your accomplishments and qualifications, use them.
- Boldding growth percentages, dollar figures, and other key accomplishments is also a good strategy.
- Start your bullet points with a powerful action verb like "managed".
- The secret to an outstanding and great resume is to remove the pronouns (he, she, I) entirely. Pronouns are redundant.
- Bullet points ensure that your key achievements will be seen. Keep it short and concise. Avoid listing irrelevant experience.
