READ BY PICTURE. Simple Stories Helen Winter, Learn to Read Book for Beginning Readers Preschool Kindergarten and 1st Grade Step into Reading Level 1 We offer the easiest way to make reading books with children a pleasure even for those children who listen to reading reluctantly With the usual type of reading a child is a passive listener while with reading by picture he or she becomes an active participant Even if children can already read they are happy to read texts where some of the words are replaced by pictures and perceive it as a bonus or a prize It is more important to receive such bonuses for children who are just starting to read or for whom reading still requires effort A small child can only voice words represented by pictures This reading not only makes kids a full participant in the process but also teaches them to reconcile the words of the picture with other words in the sentence Older children may try to read words from a vocabulary list that appears before the text A child who has begun to read will be able to enjoy reading the entire text If you are reading to your little one please read slowly Let your child think about the sentence find the right word and enjoy the reading process Some words in this book are changed to pictures Each story has a pictured vocabulary list at the beginning Includes 7 simple stories understandable and relatable for kids Great book for non English speaking children to learn and remember new words in a fun game based reading activity

Learning to Read Hazel Francis, 2017-11-27 Originally published in 1982 This book charts the reading progress of ten children through their first three years at school concentrating particularly on their problems and the ways they coped with them The author uses these case studies to analyse the children's understanding experience of behaviour associated with literacy and developing knowledge of spelling in the early stages of learning to read Her analysis of the children's difficulties and successes against the background of their home experience classroom activities and teachers methods calls in question any simplistic generalisations about the ways that background and teaching method can affect reading progress

Learning to Read Margaret Meek Spencer, Margaret Meek, 1982 The child's world is full of print and sooner or later the child will notice it Hundreds of children have learned to read from advertisements on hardings Many a non reader has failed just because he did not link the way he looked at advertisements on his way to school with what he had to look at on the school noticeboard Everything that children eat wear play with or pass in the streets has a sign or a symbol Learning to read was first published in 1982 and quickly became a classic text for anyone interested in how or why children learn to read Drawing on her own experience as a parent and teacher Margaret Meek explains what happens when a child is taught to read and how parents or teachers can help when a child has reading problems Each chapter deals with a different stage of learning each has examples of the kinds of questions that parents ask together with Margaret Meek's answers In this revised edition here is a new introduction and an updated book list
