Reading, Learning, Teaching Barbara Kingsolver Paul Lee Thomas, 2005 Our English classrooms are often only as vibrant as the literature that we teach This book explores the writing of contemporary American author Barbara Kingsolver who offers readers and students engaging fiction nonfiction and poetry that confront the reader and the world Here teachers will find an introduction to the works of Kingsolver and an opportunity to explore how to bring those works into the classroom as a part of the reading and writing curriculum This volume attempts to confront what we teach and how we teach as English teachers through the vivid texts Kingsolver offers her readers Reading, Learning, Teaching Howard Zinn Ed

Welchel, 2009 Howard Zinn is one of the most celebrated historians and social activists of our time Raised in a working class family in Brooklyn he was a shipyard worker and union organizer when World War II began He served as a bombardier in the European Theatre and this experience shaped his opposition to war as an instrument of foreign policy He became active in the civil rights movement as well as the anti war movement from the 1950s to the 1970s He is perhaps best known as the author of A People s History of the United States published in 1980 This study of Zinn s life and work opens the door to many aspects of historical study generally untouched in traditional secondary and collegiate survey courses in United States history To Zinn history is not an objective account of the past to be indelibly carved into the brains of American citizens rather history is an ever changing palette of events as people react to the contexts and cultures they find themselves immersed in By considering the lives and thoughts of less politically and socially prominent individuals students have the opportunity to re examine their own beliefs and assumptions about contemporary American life Students will gain insight into how history is constructed and recorded through a consideration of the life and writings of Howard Zinn Reading, Learning, Teaching Margaret Atwood Paul Lee Thomas, 2007 Literature that confronts our students assumptions about the world and about text is the lifeblood of English classes in American high schools and colleges Margaret Atwood offers works in a wide variety of genres that fulfill that need This volume introduces readers students and teachers to the life and works of Atwood while also suggesting a variety of ways in which her works can become valuable additions to classroom experiences with literature and writing Furthermore this volume confronts how and why we teach English through Atwood s writing

Reading, Learning, Teaching Kurt Vonnegut Paul Lee Thomas, 2006 Our English classrooms are often only as vibrant as the literature that we teach This book explores the writing of contemporary American author Kurt Vonnegut who offers readers and students engaging fiction and nonfiction works that confront the reader and the world Here teachers will find an introduction to the life and works of Vonnegut and an opportunity to explore how to bring his works into the classroom as a part of the reading and writing curriculum This volume attempts to confront what we teach and how we teach as English teachers through the vivid texts Vonnegut offers his readers Barbara Kingsolver's World Linda

to readers first American readers then British and South African readers and finally to readers the world over With incredible speed Kingsolver became one of the best known United States writers a person who collected honors and awards as if she were a much more mature literary producer From the beginning Kingsolver touched an elbow of keen interest in her readers hers was the voice of world awareness a conscientious voice that demanded attention for the narratives of the disadvantaged the politically troubled the humanly silenced By paying special attention to her non fiction essays and books this new study by renowned literary critic Linda Wagner Martin highlights the way Kingsolver has become a kind of public intellectual particularly in the 21st century It provides fresh readings of each of her novels stories and poems 21st Century Literacy Renita Schmidt, Paul Lee Thomas, 2008-11-09 Renita Schmidt and P L Thomas The guiding mission of the teacher education program in the university where we teach is to create teachers who are scholars and leaders While the intent of that mission is basically sound in theory we instill the idea that teachers at all levels are professionals always learning and growing in knowledge that theory that philosophical underpinning does not insure that the students who complete our program are confident about the act or performance of teaching In our unique program students work closely with one teacher and classroom for the entire senior year and then are supervised and mentored during their first semester of teaching the program is heavily field based and it depends on the effectiveness of mentoring throughout the methods coursework and the first semester of full time teaching Students tell us this guidance and support is invaluable and yet we feel the disjuncture between university and school just as many of you in more traditional student teaching settings Students hear best practice information from us in methods classes and they receive ample exposure to the research supporting our field but have a hard time implementing research based practices in their classroom settings and an even harder time finding it in the classrooms around them What You Don't Know About Schools J. Kincheloe, S. Steinberg, 2006-02-06 We live in an era where our view of school is reduced by a superficial public conversation In this context the complexity of the educational process and the debate over the purpose of schooling is lost This book brings together leading scholars of education to analyze these issues and engage the public in different ways of looking at school Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie der im Ausland erschienenen deutschsprachigen Veröffentlichungen ,2006 The English Record ,2005 Statement ,2006 Journal of Teaching Writing ,2004 James Dickey Newsletter ,2005 Educational Leadership ,1943 Das Schweizer Buch ,2005 Journal of Computing in Teacher Education ,1999 American Literary Scholarship James Leslie Woodress, 2005 Current Index to Journals in Education ,2000 Engaged in Learning Kathleen Strickland, James Strickland, 2002 The authors draw on their backgrounds in composition linguistics and literary theory to ground their teaching in a philosophy that is student centered and inquiry based Language Arts Carol Jago, 2001 Language Arts Science Visual and Performing Arts Family and Consumer Sciences Foreign Languages Teaching to Learn Margaret Cusack, 2001
