Power Of Religion A Comparative Introduction:

Prince, Pen, and Sword: Eurasian Perspectives Maaike van Berkel, Jeroen Duindam, 2018-01-22 Prince Pen and Sword offers a synoptic interpretation of rulers and elites in Eurasia from the fourteenth to the eighteenth century Four core chapters zoom in on the tensions and connections at court on the nexus between rulers and religious authority on the status function and self perceptions of military and administrative elites respectively Two additional concise chapters provide a focused analysis of the construction of specific dynasties the Golden Horde and the Habsburgs and narratives of kingship found in fiction throughout Eurasia The contributors and editors authorities in their fields systematically bring together specialised literature on numerous Eurasian kingdoms and empires This book is a careful and thought provoking experiment in the global comparative and connected history of rulers and elites The Power of Religion Amanda Porterfield, 1998 Genuinely accessible to undergraduates and general readers it shows how various forms of these traditions are lived out in practice experience and community presenting religions as conceivable ways of living and demonstrating how religious beliefs are integrally related to other aspects of life Many chapters open with a description of a particular religious event or act that one might encounter today in the United States where virtually all of the world's religions are now being practiced The author discusses several of the historical developments each religion has undergone and considers how each of the religions has changed in response to the climate of religious exchange and religious pluralism that exists in the United States today African Theology, Philosophy, and Religions Julius Gathogo, Chammah J. Kaunda, 2020-11-24 In African Theology Philosophy and Religions Celebrating John Samuel Mbiti's Contribution contributors explore John Samuel Mbiti's contributions to African scholarship and demonstrate how he broke through the western glass ceiling of scholarship and made African informed and African shaped scholarship a reality Contributors examine the far reaching implications of Mbiti's scholarship arguing that he shifted the contemporary African Christian landscape and informed global expressions of Christianity African Theology Philosophy and Religions analyzes Mbiti's scholarship and shows that his theories are malleable and fluid allowing a new generation of scholars to reinterpret reconstruct and further develop his theories This collection brings together contributors from a wide range of disciplines to study John Samuel Mbiti as the father of contemporary African theology and grapple with questions Africans face in the twenty first century Religious Rules, State Law, and Normative Pluralism - A Comparative Overview Rossella Bottoni, Rinaldo Cristofori, Silvio Ferrari, 2016-07-07 This book is devoted to the study of the interplay between religious rules and State law It explores how State recognition of religious rules can affect the degree of legal diversity that is available to citizens and why such recognition sometime results in more individual and collective freedom and sometime in a threat to equality of citizens before the law The first part of the book contains a few contributions that place this discussion within the wider debate on legal pluralism While State law and religious rules are two normative systems among many others the specific characteristics of the latter are at the heart of tensions that emerge with increasing frequency in many countries The second part is devoted to the analysis of about twenty national cases that provide an overview of the different tools and strategies that are employed to manage the relationship between State law and religious rules all over the world Introduction to the Science of Religion Friedrich Max Müller,1870 European Family Law Volume I Jens M. Scherpe,2016-01-29 The Impact of Institutions and Organisations on European Family Law looks at the impact that institutions and organisations have had and continue to have on European family law In many ways the chapters in this volume provide the easiest explanation for the existence of a European family law While there is no European body that could actually legislate definitively on family law even the European Union has no such mandate there are still some obvious institutions that have a very direct impact on European family law These can be divided into two groups namely those that have a direct impact such as the European Court of Human Rights and the European Union and those that have an indirect impact such as the Commission on European Family Law CEFL the Council of Europe and the International Commission on Civil Status ICCL CIEC as well as the private international law instruments of the Hague Conference HCCH and the EU Together with religion all of these institutions are contributing to the creation of a European family law This book and the others in the set will serve as an invaluable resource for anyone interested in family law It will be of particular use to students and scholars of comparative and international family law as well as family law practitioners Research & Creative Activity ,1998 Ten Great Religions--: An essay in comparative theology, 33d ed.-(pt. II) A comparison of all religions, 16th ed James Freeman Clarke,1894 Heythrop Journal ,1999 A select book list appears quarterly A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion Janice Boddy,Michael Lambek,2015-12-14 A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays that explore the variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world and asks how to think about religion as a subject of anthropological inquiry Presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays exploring the wide variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world Explores a broad range of topics including the perspectivism debate the rise of religious nationalism reflections on religion and new media religion and politics and ideas of self and gender in relation to religious belief Includes examples drawn from different religious traditions and from several regions of the world Features newly commissioned articles reflecting the most up to date research and critical thinking in the field written by an international team of leading scholars Adds immeasurably to our understanding of the complex relationships between religion culture society and the individual in today s world AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting,1999 Law and Religious Diversity in Education Kyriaki Topidi,2020-08-05 Religion is a prominent legal force despite the premise constructed and promoted by Western constitutionalism that it must be separated from the State in democracies Education constitutes an area of human life that leaves ample scope for the expression of religious identity and shapes the citizens of the future It is also the place of origin of a considerable number of normative conflicts involving religious identity that arise today in multicultural settings The book deals with the interplay of law and religion in education through the versatility of religious law and legal pluralism as well as religion's possible adaptation and reconciliation with modernity in order to consider and reflect on normative conflicts It adopts the angle of the constitutional dimension of religion narrated in a comparative perspective and critically reflects on regulatory attempts by the State and the international community to promote new ways of living together Religion im Sozialraum Ingolf Hübner, Sonja Keller, Kristin Merle, Steffen Merle, Thorsten Moos, Christopher Zarnow, 2023-04-26 Sozialraum und Sozialraumorientierung sind zu prägenden Leitbegriffen geworden um Formen der kooperativen und organisationsbergreifenden Gestaltung von Lebensräumen zu bezeichnen Auch Kirche und Diakonie bringen sich in die Planung und Entwicklung städtischer und ländlicher Räume ein Die Beiträge fragen einerseits aus interdisziplinärer Perspektive nach der Relevanz von religiösen Organisationen und Netzwerken für die Entwicklung von Sozialräumen andererseits nach der theologischen und diakoniewissenschaftlichen Anschlussfähigkeit an das Sozialraumparadigma Lectures on the Science of Religion Friedrich Max Müller, 1872 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004 Lectures on the science of religion; with a paper on Buddhist nihilism Friedrich Max Müller, 1872 Wicked Hearts and Wayward Walking Monica DiCataldo Fitzgerald, 2005 Ten Great Religions: A comparison of all religions. 1898, c1883 James Freeman Clarke, 1883 A comparison of all religions, fifth ed James Freeman Clarke, 1886 Ten Great Religions: A comparison of all religions. 18th ed. 1898 James Freeman Clarke, 1898
