Proceedings from the 7th Nordic Conference on English Studies Sanna-Kaisa Tanskanen, Brita Wårvik, 1999

The Reception of Charles Dickens in Europe Michael Hollington, 2013-08-29 The Reception of Charles Dickens in Europe offers a full historical survey of Dickens's reception in all the major European countries and many of the smaller ones filling a major gap in Dickens scholarship which has by and large neglected Dickens's fortunes in Europe and his impact on major European authors and movements. Essays by leading international critics and translators give full attention to cultural changes and fashions such as the decline of Dickens's fortunes at the end of the nineteenth century in the period of Naturalism and Aestheticism and the subsequent upswing in the period of Modernism in part as a consequence of the rise of film in the era of Chaplin and Eisenstein. It will also offer accounts of Dickens's reception in periods of political upheaval and revolution such as during the communist era in Eastern Europe or under fascism in Germany and Italy in particular.

Wieland der Schmied – und Schamane? Hayo Vierck, 2021-12-06 Mit dem früh verstorbenen Hayo Vierck verlor die jüngere deutsche Frühmittelalterforschung einen ihrer innovativsten Vertreter. In seiner bislang unveröffentlichten Münsteraner Habilitationsschrift bernahm er einen konsequent interdisziplinären Ansatz. Aus der Zusammenschau von Archäologie, Kunstgeschichte, Philologie, Religionswissenschaft und Zoologie gelangt er zu neuen wegweisenden Erkenntnissen über eine der rätselhaftesten Gestalten der germanischen Heldensage: Wieland den Schmied, den eine bis ins 7. Jahrhundert zurückreichende, überwiegend trümmerrhafte Schrift und Bildüberlieferung bei Angelsachsen und Skandinaviern als tragischen Helden einer grausamen Rache und Fluchtfabel feiert.

Structures in Discourse Martin Gill, Aino Malmivirta, Brita Wårvik, 2024-08-15 This volume aims to stretch the boundaries of text and discourse linguistics, exploring organization and structuring in discourse across a variety of communication forms from written to spoken to visual in old and new media. It presents a collection of case studies ranging in focus from the micro level discourse functions of pronouns and emojis to the macro level structure of online interaction, all from their different perspectives, drawing inspiration from the notion of text as structure and process. In a world of proliferating media and discourse types, the papers collected here reflect the latest scholarship in text and discourse studies, highlighting the value of combining multiple approaches and suggesting future directions and possibilities for research. Structures in Discourse will be of interest to students and researchers in pragmatics, discourse analysis, media studies, and digitally mediated communication.

How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature, including ancient and non-Western. How Literary Worlds Are Shaped: A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study. Literature, it claims, is based on individual and shared human imagination, which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic. Mimesis and genre are often modulated by different kinds of unreliability. The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral, visual, and written modes, and three themes challenge perception and relation: They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds
