Money and Marketing in the Art World Henrik Hagtvedt, 2024-10-21 How does the art market choose its winners thereby also deciding what millions of visitors to galleries and museums will view year after year Whereas art historical writing and contemporary commentary tend to highlight the efforts of specific artists this book illustrates how money and marketing in combination with general trends play decisive roles in shaping the art world and in propelling specific artists and artworks to positions of prominence Today perhaps more than ever before the high profile art world is primarily shaped by buyers and those who cater to buyers The actual artists although most visible to the public tend to play a secondary role The time seems particularly ripe for transparency about how the art world works given the growth in the art market media attention on and popular interest in high priced art and controversy surrounding public funding for art and the value of art for contemporary society With a combination of marketplace observations marketing insights and relevant research findings this book contributes to increased transparency while providing thought provoking digressions and anecdotes along the way Money and Marketing in the Art World offers an accessible analysis of the art market for scholars and graduate students across arts marketing and management as well as for those more broadly interested in art and business

The Publishers Weekly, 2009 Discovering God Rodney Stark, 2009-03-17 An award winning sociologist's fascinating and excellent history of the origins of the great religions from the Stone Age to the Modern Age Newsweek In Discovering God Rodney Stark surveys the birth and growth of religions around the world from the prehistoric era of primal beliefs the history of the pyramids found in Iraq Egypt Mexico and Cambodia and the great Axial Age of Plato Zoroaster Confucius and the Buddha to the modern Christian missions and the global spread of Islam He argues for a free market theory of religion and for the controversial thesis that under the best unimpeded conditions the true most authentic religions will survive and thrive Many modern biologists and psychologists claim that religion is a primitive survival mechanism that should have been discarded as humans evolved that in modern societies faith is a misleading crutch and an impediment to reason Stark responds to this position arguing that it is our capacity to understand God that has evolved that humans now know much more about God than they did in ancient times Winner of the 2008 Christianity Today Award of Merit in Theology Ethics Proceedings The 10th Graduate Students Conference 2021 Bima Iqbal Khadafi, Maria Regina Anna Hadi Kusumawardani, Inggita Pramesti Ayuningtyas, Nurah Abdul Wahid, & Abdullah Siddik, 2022-03-31 The 10th Graduate Students Conference GSC of the Graduate Program in English Language Studies ELS is an annual event It has provided a forum for graduate students not only from Universitas Sanata Dharma but also from neighboring universities to share their research through presentation and dialogue This year's conference theme relates the pandemic with the practice of reading and teaching in order to understand better the impact of this lengthy pandemic on our professional life as students and teachers

Mesmerization Gee Thomson, 2008 In the modern Western world hundreds if not thousands of contagious ideas spread by word of mouth or through the media spells or memes make up contemporary culture and affect just about every aspect of our daily life Some of the most powerful of these spells form the core of Mesmerization In this highly visual publication the many facets of each spell are dissected and analysed within a unique graphic formula that exposes and encapsulates its meaning and purpose The most successful of such constructs are the creation of the media the image makers advertising executives newspaper editors creatives designers photographers and film producers who make up the ranks of the creative elite Their dreams of affluence comfort and wellbeing are being emulated the world over More than we know they determine what we believe how we behave and think and control our decisions as to what gets made what gets seen what gets heard But there are cracks in this wonderland Psychological disorders drug dependency obesity gun crime and social addictions are on the rise Worldwide the gaping disparity between rich and poor nations religious unrest disease and famine resource scarcity and fears over climate change head the agenda The influence and aspirations of our lifestyles are central to these issues How can we make headway in confronting our wider realities when we have an image machine that is totally at loggerheads with the need for restraint By revealing the collective power of these insidious cultural influences Mesmerization is a challenge to the creative industry to those who control the motivational drivers underpinning the global psyche In their hands rests the ability to change and transform future behaviour This publication provides the catalyst
