A Dream within a Dream.

BY EDGAR A. POE.

---

Take this kiss upon the brow!
And, in parting from you now,
Thus much let me avow—
You are not wrong, who deem
That my days have been a dream;
Yet if Hope has flown away
In a night, or in a day,
In a vision, or in none,
Is it therefore the less gone?
All that we see or seem
Is but a dream within a dream.

I stand amid the roar
Of a surf-tormented shore,
And I hold within my hand
Grains of the golden sand—
How few! yet how they creep
Through my fingers to the deep,
While I weep—while I weep!
O God! can I not grasp
Them with a tighter clasp?
O God! can I not save
One from the pitiless wave?
Is all that we see or seem
But a dream within a dream?

Riding On A Dream Prose Poetry:

Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice Anne Caldwell, Oz Hardwick, 2022-06-01 Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice vigorously engages with the Why and the How of prose poetry a form that is currently enjoying a surge in popularity With contributions by both practitioners and academics this volume seeks to explore how its distinctive properties guide both writer and reader and to address why this form is so well suited to the early twenty first century With discussion of both classic and less well known writers the essays both illuminate prose poetry's distinctive features and explore how this outsider form can offer a unique way of viewing and describing the uncertainties and instabilities which shape our identities and our relationships with our surroundings in the early twenty first century Combining insights on the theory and practice of prose poetry Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice offers a timely and valuable contribution to the development of the form and its appreciation amongst practitioners and scholars alike Largely approached from a practitioner perspective this collection provides vivid snapshots of contemporary debates within the prose poetry field while actively contributing to the poetics and craft of the form

The Romance of the Lyric in Nineteenth-Century Women's Poetry Lee Christine O'Brien, 2012-10-05 The Romance of the Lyric in Nineteenth Century Women's Poetry Experiments in Form offers a new account of the nature of the lyric as nineteenth century women poets developed the form It offers fresh assessments of the imaginative and aesthetic complexity of women's poetry The monograph seeks to redefine the range and cultural significance of women's writing using the work of poets who have not heretofore been part of critical accounts of nineteenth century lyric poetry These new voices are set beside new readings of the poetry of established figures for example Christina Rossetti's Goblin Market and Augusta Webster's Medea in Athens and Circe The monograph draws substantially on the poetry of Rosamund Marriott Watson who was lost to literary history before the restoration of her oeuvre through the scholarly and critical work of Professor Linda K Hughes to make the case that once neglected and lost voices provide new ways of determining the cultural centrality of women and the poetry they produced in one of the richest periods of poetic experimentation in the Western literary tradition This monograph contends that Watson's poetry and prose provide new ways of analyzing the complex and frequently transgressive nature of the lyric engagement of women with folklore and myth and with the growing understanding in the nineteenth century of the fragmented fluid self in general and of the writer in particular

Round the world on a wheel, the narrative of a bicycle ride John Foster Fraser, 1899 German Literature as World Literature Thomas Oliver Beebe, 2014-07-31 This new collection investigates German literature in its international dimensions While no single volume can deal comprehensively with such a vast topic the nine contributors cover a wide historical range with a variety of approaches and authors represented Together the essays begin to adumbrate the systematic nature of the relations between German national literature and world literature as these have developed through institutions cultural networks and individual authors In the last two decades discussions of world literature literature that resonates beyond its original linguistic and cultural contexts have come increasingly to the forefront of theoretical investigations of literature One reason for the explosion of world literature theory pedagogy and methodology is the difficulty of accomplishing either world literature criticism or world literary history The capaciousness as well as the polylingual and multicultural features of world literature present formidable obstacles to its study and call for a collaborative approach that conjoins a variety of expertise To that end this collection contributes to the critical study of world literature in its textual institutional and translatorial reality while at the same time highlighting a question that has hitherto received insufficient scholarly attention what is the relation between national and world literatures or more specifically in what senses do national literatures systematically participate in or resist world literature

The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld, 2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship
