Hardin, 2007 David Wojnarowicz 1954 1992 was an interdisciplinary artist who rejected traditional scholarship and was suspicious of institutions Wojnarowicz's Arthur Rimbaud in New York series 1978 79 is his earliest complete body of work In the series a friend wears the visage of the French symbolist poet My discussion of the photographs involves how they convey Wojnarowicz's notion of the city In chapter one I discuss Rimbaud's conception of the modern city and how Wojnarowicz evokes the figure of the flaneur in establishing a link with nineteenth century Paris In the final chapters I address the issue of the control of the city and an individual's right to the city In chapter two I draw a connection between the renovations of Paris by Baron George Eugene Haussman and the gentrification Wojnarowicz witnessed of the Lower East side Finally in chapter three I analyze the role that graffiti plays in the series American Exposures Louis Kaplan, 2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole's propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen's Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald s most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph s appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald s artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Seaching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies
