Citizens Without Rights John Chesterman, Brian Galligan, 1997-12-22 3 Is the constitution to blame      Rights for Aborigines Bain Attwood, 2020-07-24 We cannot help but wonder why it has taken the white Australians just on 200 years to recognise us as a race of people Bill Onus 1967 Aboriginal people were the original landowners in Australia yet this was easily forgotten by Europeans settling this old continent Labelled as a primitive and dying race by the end of the nineteenth century most Aborigines were denied the right to vote to determine where their families would live and to maintain their cultural traditions In this groundbreaking work Bain Attwood charts a century long struggle for rights for Aborigines in Australia He tracks the ever shifting perceptions of race and history and how these impacted on the ideals and goals of campaigners for rights for indigenous people He looks at prominent Aboriginal and non Aboriginal campaigners and what motivated their involvement in key incidents and movements Drawing on oral and documentary sources he investigates how they found enough common ground to fight together for justice and equality for Aboriginal people Rights for Aborigines illuminates questions of race history political and social rights that are central to our understanding of relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal Australians      The Aborigines Protection Society Henry Richard Fox Bourne, 1899      APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service ,      The Question of Aborigines in the Law and Practice of Nations Alpheus Henry Snow, 1921      The Aborigines of Australia Roderick J.
