Zoo Animal Welfare

Paul Rose, Zoe Newnham, Ian Hickey, 2025-11-21. Zoo Animal Welfare unpacks the different concepts of welfare in the zoo and aquarium, considering how enclosure design, nutrition, conservation activities, visitor engagement, and daily husbandry all need to have a welfare focus to be relevant to the species being housed. The book provides the practical application of evidence-based welfare theory centered on the concept of welfare-focused husbandry, which enables zoo animals to experience positive welfare. Recognising that welfare is a complex and challenging area of science, the first section of the book provides core introductory material defining welfare in the zoo and looking at how the wild is managed ethically. It then delves into current issues with contributed chapters exploring topics such as environmental enrichment, nutrition, the impacts of human presence in the zoo, conservation, welfare, use of social media, and population management. Packed with case studies and exploration of emerging issues in the field, e.g., novel technology for welfare assessment, welfare considerations of overlooked taxa, this book is essential reading for higher-level undergraduate and postgraduate students and academics who wish to study the welfare of captive wild animals, as well as for all those working in animal care and zoo operations. Zoo Animal Welfare will empower readers to go beyond the norm when considering what zoo animals really need, applying their new knowledge for the benefit of both animals and zoos.

The Human-Animal Relationship as a Subject of Citizenship Education

Jennifer Bloise, 2025-09-26. The aim of this book is to explore the human-animal relationship as a new subject of political education and to make it accessible for critical reflection. A guiding thesis is that society's relationship with animals is both political and problematic as it is shaped by power structures and rarely recognized as an issue due to its status as an unexamined norm. To explore this topic, the model of didactic reconstruction is employed. A problem-centered interview study is used to reconstruct students' everyday conceptions of animals, humans, and their political relationship. These conceptions are then compared with academic perspectives, particularly from Human Animal Studies, in order to uncover contradictions and taken-for-granted assumptions and to identify exemplary didactically fruitful approaches to the subject. The author concludes that future engagement with the human-animal relationship in the context of political education should be critically oriented toward power structures This would enable reflective and multi perspective political judgment on the human animal relationship making the invisible visible      A Communion of Subjects Paul Waldau, Kimberley Patton, 2009-05-22 A Communion of Subjects is the first comparative and interdisciplinary study of the conceptualization of animals in world religions Scholars from a wide range of disciplines including Thomas Berry cultural history Wendy Doniger study of myth Elizabeth Lawrence veterinary medicine ritual studies Marc Bekoff cognitive ethology Marc Hauser behavioral science Steven Wise animals and law Peter Singer animals and ethics and Jane Goodall primatology consider how major religious traditions have incorporated animals into their belief systems myths rituals and art Their findings offer profound insights into the relationship between human beings and animals and a deeper understanding of the social and ecological web in which we all live      The Political Theory of Animal Rights Robert Garner, 2005-07-22 Looking at the impact on political thinking caused by the idea that animals are morally important beings this text suggests that liberalism despite having weaknesses is the most appropriate ideological position for the protection of animal interests      Animal Rights Janelle Rohr, 1989 Presents thirty two articles debating the question of whether animals have rights      Animal Rights Terry O'Neill, 2006 This book shows animal rights activists and controversy      Animal Rights Andrew Harnack, 1996 Presents articles addressing different perspectives as to whether animals have rights      Does Wildlife Need to Be Protected? David L.
