Cruisy, Sleepy, Melancholy Nicholas de Villiers, 2022-09-27 A brilliant approach to the queerness of one of Taiwan's greatest auteurs A critical figure in queer Sinophone cinema and the first director ever commissioned to create a film for the permanent collection of the Louvre Tsai Ming-liang is a major force in Taiwan cinema and global moving image art Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy offers a fascinating systematic method for analyzing the queerness of Tsai's films Nicholas de Villiers argues that Tsai expands and revises the notion of queerness by engaging with the sexuality of characters who are migrants tourists diasporic or otherwise displaced Through their lack of fixed identities these characters offer a clear challenge to the binary division between heterosexuality and homosexuality as well as the Orientalist binary division of Asia versus the West Ultimately de Villiers explores how Tsai's films help us understand queerness in terms of spatial temporal and sexual disorientation Conceiving of Tsai's cinema as an intertextual network Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy makes an important addition to scholarly work on Tsai in English It draws on extensive interviews with the director while also offering a complete reappraisal of Tsai's body of work Contributing to queer film theory and the aesthetics of displacement Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy reveals striking connections between sexuality space and cinema

Melancholy Drift Jean Ma, 2010-06-01 Ma offers an innovative study of three provocative Chinese directors Wong Kar-wai Hou Hsiao-hsien and Tsai

Ming liang Focusing on the highly stylized and monlinear configurations of time in each director s films she argues that these directors have brought new global respect for Chinese cinema in amplifying motifs of loss nostalgia hauntn absence and ephemeral poetics Hou Tsai and Wong all isist on the significance of being out of time not merely out of place as a condition of global modernity Ma argues that their films collectively foreground the central place of contemporary Chinese films in a transnational culture of memory characterized by a distinctive melancholy that highlights the difficulty of binding together past and present into a meaningful narrative Jean Ma is assistant professor in the Department of Art and Art History at Stanford University Melancholy Drift rides the films of three Chinese auteurs right into the heart of its subject the mismatch between private feeling and collective history These crucial films set carefully beside one another begin to pulse anew under the deft touch of Jean Ma s analyses Drawing on a deep reservoir of historical and critical knowledge she helps us hear these films speak of our times then speak of time itself and of its dislocations Dudley Andrew Yale University Theoretically sophisticated and elegantly written Melancholy Drift elucidates the subject of cinematic time in its various configurations as a response to historical ruptures and political upheavals as representational politics and as a reinvention of the art cinema This book is a timely demonstration of the key roles played by Chinese auteurs in shaping the new face of world cinema today and an important contribution to scholarship both within and beyond the field of transnational Chinese cinemas Song Hwee Lim University of Exeter
