Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe, 2000      The World of Persian Literary Humanism
Hamid Dabashi, 2012-11-20 Humanism has mostly considered the question What does it mean to be human from a Western perspective Dabashi asks it anew from a non European perspective in a groundbreaking study of 1 400 years of Persian literary humanism He presents the unfolding of this vast tradition as the creative and subversive subconscious of Islamic civilization      The Persian Empire Mehrdad Kia, 2016-06-27 This well balanced reference on ancient Persia demonstrates the region s contributions to the growth and development of human civilization from the 7th century BCE through the fall of the Persian Sasanian Empire in 651CE Knowledge of ancient Persia is often gleaned from the writings of the ancient Greeks and Romans two civilizations that viewed the Persians as enemies This one of a kind reference provides unbiased coverage of the cultural history of the Persian Empire examining the Median Achaemenid Parthian Kushan and Sasanian dynasties and tracing the development and maturation of Iranian societies during a period of nearly 1 500 years As one of the most comprehensive studies on the topic this historical overview explores the region s rich past while providing insight into the cultures and civilizations the Persians came to rule and influence Using primary sources written and inscribed by the ancient Persians themselves the encyclopedia studies the pre Islamic civilizations of Iran in the Middle East the Caucasus Central Asia and the Indian subcontinent Incorporating contributions from scholars who discuss the rise and fall of various Persian dynasties the work offers some 180 entries that cover such topics as religion royal nobility the caste system and political assassinations The content offers perspectives from a variety of disciplines from anthropology to archaeology geography and art history among other areas      The Routledge Handbook of Persian Literary Translation Pouneh Shabani-Jadidi, Patricia J. Higgins, Michelle Quay, 2022-07-08 The Routledge Handbook of Persian Literary Translation offers a detailed overview of the field of Persian literature in translation discusses the development of the field gives critical expression to research on Persian literature in translation and brings together cutting edge theoretical and practical research The book is divided into the following three parts I Translation of Classical Persian Literature II Translation of Modern Persian Literature and III Persian Literary Translation in Practice The chapters of the book are authored by internationally renowned scholars in the field and the volume is an essential reference for scholars and their advanced students as well as for those researching in related areas and for independent translators of Persian literature      The Political Ideas of Shahnameh Ferdowsi Khosrow Riggi, 1978      The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available      The American Institute of Iranian Studies Erica Ehrenberg,2025-06-17 The American Institute of Iranian Studies is devoted to fostering research in the field of Iranian studies and promoting scholarly exchange between the United States and Iran This collection of essays addresses the history and development of Iranian studies in the United States and the pivotal role of the Institute in furthering research in the field The purview of the Institute is vast covering Iranology the study of Iranian peoples and cultures both within and across regions of Central and South Asia and the Middle East where various forms of the Persian language are spoken In keeping with the Institute s dedication to facilitating research in Iran the chapters in this volume represent fields of inquiry that have benefited from direct access to materials in the country The essays describe the founding and work of the Institute the emergence of Iranian studies in American universities the Encyclopaedia Iranica early archaeological research in Iran by the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Chicago the birth and development of American museum collections of art from Iran and case histories of areas of Iranian Studies that have been the traditional focus of Institute sponsored research including art history history philology religion and sociology The contributors to this volume are Ahmad Ashraf Shiva Balaghi Medhi Bozorgmehr Elton L Daniel Erica Ehrenberg Carl W Ernst Stephen C Fairbanks Prudence O Harper Linda Komaroff Judith A Lerner Franklin D Lewis Beatrice Forbes Manz Alessandro Pezzati Holly Pittman D T Potts Richard L Spees Mathew W Stolper Keyvan Tabari and Christopher Thorton      Iranian Culture Michael C. Hillmann,1990-07-24 In light of the great importance Iranians themselves attach to their imaginative Persian literature and in light of the underutilization of literary figures works and evidence in existing studies of Iranian culture this work focuses on leading authors and classic literary works in attempting to discern enduring cultural features and values It is a Persianist account of the pivotal features of Iranian culture through the eyes of six Persian literary figures three from the pre modern and three from the modern literary history of Iran The work examines the literary dimensions of the Persian culture as well as the political social and religious significance of the dimensions within the culture The author reveals the ancient Persian tradition of the struggle between two opposing forces and the way in which it relates to the present political turmoil in that country      Leadership through the Classics Gregory P Prastacos,Fuming Wang,Klas Eric Soderquist,2013-02-01 The unforeseeably complex socio economic and environmental challenges of the 21st century must be tackled by placing faith in the power of mankind to integrate established wisdom and new knowledge and in our ability to collaborate for a sustainable future Departing from this a global 2011 conference debating papers devoted to the impact of ancient philosophy focusing on Confucius and Aristotle in modern leadership and management was organized by Hanban the Athens University of Economics Business and the University of International Economics Business Beijing China A rich sourcebook for a broad audience this unique volume presents the wide array of conference contributions by international thought leaders Departing from a foundation of general concepts of ethics and leadership the book then delves into questions about how philosophy shape emerging economic and business systems to end with direct lessons from ancient philosophy for contemporary business challenges      Teaching the Global Middle Ages Geraldine Heng,2022-10-28 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching literature and culture of the medieval world including legends about Alexander and Prester John and contact points such as the Silk Road and the Mongol Empire Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in literature history religion and languages Includes a list of resources
