Exploring Vancouver Harold Kalman, Robin Ward, 2012-04-27 Vancouver's streetscapes and neighbourhoods have changed drastically in recent years New buildings representing current architectural trends are mixing with and often replacing those of earlier eras and tastes and a maturing architectural melange is emerging This book invites the reader to explore the city's continually evolving urban landscape in a highly readable yet authoritative guide to its architecture In this completely updated edition of Exploring Vancouver with brand new entries and accompanying photographs Harold Kalman and Robin Ward have divided the city including the North Shore Richmond Burnaby and New Westminster into fourteen areas selecting buildings and structures in these neighbourhoods that represent the best examples of the new and old architecture Each area is preceded by an informative introduction that provides historical context for the entries that follow There are over 400 entries each featuring a short description that combines architectural historical and social commentary The prose is lively as the authors consider the new and the old the modest and the grand the attractive and the not so attractive in a wide ranging work that encompasses everything from heritage to monster homes This book is designed as a walking tour guide with a map of each area showing the location of every entry The Cumulative Book Index , 1999
