Profiling And Utilizing Learning Style:

Profiling and Utilizing Learning Style James W. Keefe, 1988 The purpose of the National Association of Secondary School Principals NASSP Learning Style Profile is to provide educators with a well validated and easy to use instrument for diagnosing the cognitive styles perceptual response tendencies and study instructional preferences of middle level and senior high school students The Learning Style Profile offers school practitioners a way to personalize the instructional process to identify the dominant stylistic characteristics of students and to plan instruction accordingly The articles in this monograph offer a short course in the development theoretical base and utilization of the NASSP Learning Style Profile The conceptual and practical issues of the Learning Style Profile are also explored Chapters include 1 Development of the NASSP Learning Style Profile James W Keefe 2 The NASSP Learning Style Profile and Cognitive Processing Charles A Letteri 3 Using the NASSP Learning Profile Barbara Ferrell and 4 A Learning Style Approach to Effective Instruction John M Jenkins JD

Resources in Education, 1988 Practical Approaches to Using Learning Styles in Higher Education Rita Dunn, Shirley A. Griggs, 2000-04-30 Dunn and Griggs challenge the traditional instructional process of lecture discussion in college classroom and describe the theory practice and research that support a wider variety of approaches to better accommodate the learning style preferences of each student Twenty five practitioners from varied backgrounds and disciplines representing 14 colleges and universities outline alternative strategies they use with diverse students in their institutions of higher education Some of these practitioners have been using learning style for decades Others have conducted research to test the various tenets of the Dunn and Dunn Learning Style Model and a few only for the past five years have begun providing instructional strategies that are congruent with their students preferences A road map is provided for college faculty to assist them in moving toward accommodating students learning style strengths by comparing the major theories of learning styles that range from uni to multi dimensional in scope Strategies include identifying and administering valid and reliable instruments for assessing college students learning styles interpreting assessment results so that each student becomes aware of his her own strengths and is provided a computer generated prescription for improving their study skills and successfully completing assignments designing instruction to respond to both global and analytic students processing styles developing course content and materials to accommodate the learning style preferences of college students and evaluating the impact of learning styles based instruction
