Economic Recovery Options and Challenges United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Budget, 2009 Divide and Deal Ian Shapiro, Peter A. Swenson, Daniela Donno, 2008-07 Taking a view of inequality as encompassing the distribution of wealth risk status and well being this volume explores how institutions individuals and coalitions contribute to the often surprising twists and turns of distributive politics It identifies various psychological and institutional factors that influence distributive outcomes Germany, Selected Issues , 2006 American Challenges Irving Leveson, 1991-02-14 The American economy and society are undergoing vast transformations including a renaissance of capitalism a great wave of technological change and a restructuring of businesses and industries A superindustrial society is evolving and there is a new social cycle that initially offers a greater understanding of problems along with practical means to their solutions This work addresses the changing state of America s economy and society in its global context painting a serious but positive portrait of the United States in the next decade In this context Irving Leveson carefully explores long term trends and prospects provides an integrated treatment of issues that are usually examined in discrete fragments offers a context for planning and decision making and contributes thorough analyses of specific trends and issues The book is structured around three major themes The first is the need for longer term perspectives in both personal and business affairs the second focuses on key trends and the way in which some will be significantly weakened nullified or reversed in the 1990s and the third details the serious business social and economic challenges that remain to be dealt with Leveson charts the transformation of America and the economic conservatism and market orientation that resulted in the renaissance of capitalism as well as the long cycle upswing of economic restructuring He then turns to the coming superindustrial society and new social cycle along with the challenges opportunities and problems that the 1990s and the next century will bring Throughout the work he offers perspectives on such topics as prospects for corporate restructuring financial globalization and volatility health futures and the relation of business strategy to long cycle evolution An accompanying appendix provides comparisons of long cycles and the study concludes with a selected bibliography This work will be a useful tool for corporate managers and executives government officials and policy planners as well as a valuable resource for courses in economic studies and public policy It will also be an important addition to the collections of both public and academic libraries Independence: the Canadian Challenge Committee for an Independent Canada, 1972 This book will shock and alarm any reader not already seriously concerned about Canada s future Here are the facts They speak for themselves Here in one book are the clearly stated reasons why such a large number of Canadians have set aside partisan political beliefs to share a common cause the fight for independence The Committee for an Independent Canada has often been accused of rocking the boat It accepts that responsibility This book has been compiled and published by the Committee so that every thinking Canadian can reach his own conclusion Canada s situation is critical and can only be saved by a determined national resolve This book may help to strengthen that resolve Peter Newman on economic union with the U S John Livingston on ecological independence Claude Ryan on the Gray Report and Quebec Robin Mathews and James Steele on education Abraham Rotstein and Eric Kierans on foreign control These are just a few of the voices and issues included in this authoritative reference handbook Abraham Rotstein is Managing Editor of Canadian Forum and an Associate Professor in the Department of Political Economy at the University of Toronto A prolific writer on Canadian nationalism and the multinational corporation he is a founding member of the Committee for an Independent Canada and was a member of the Task Force on Foreign Ownership Watkins Report Gary Lax is a research associate in the national office of the Committee for an Independent Canada and a recent graduate of the University of Toronto
