Video and DVD Industries Paul McDonald, 2019-07-25 When the videocassette recorder was launched on the consumer market in the mid 1970s it transformed home entertainment Bringing together complementary but also competing interests from the consumer electronics industry and the film television and other copyright industries video created a new sector of media business Two decades later DVD reinvented video media for the digital age DVD provided consumers with an innovative form of entertainment technology and almost instantaneously became the catalyst for a huge boom in the video market Although the VCR and DVD created major markets for video hardware and software the video business has been continually shaped by industry conflicts and tensions Repeatedly the video market has become divided when faced with the introduction of competing formats Easy reproduction of films and other works on cassette or disc made video software a lucrative market for the copyright industries but also intensified struggles to combat the effects of commercial piracy Video and DVD Industries examines the business of video entertainment and provides the first study looking at DVD from an industrial perspective Detailing divisions in the video business the book outlines industry battles over incompatible formats from the Betamax VHS war to competing laserdisc systems alternatives such as video compact disc or Digital Video Express and the introduction of HDDVD and Blu ray high definition systems Chapters also look at the formation of international markets in the globalization of video media the contradictory responses of the Hollywood studios to video and DVD and the legal and technological measures taken to control industrialized video piracy

Global Experience Industries Jens Christensen, 2009-08-30 The experience economy is a fourth economic field different from commodities goods and services Experiences are an economic value added to a product or identical with the product When you buy an experience you pay to spend time enjoying a series of memorable events that a company stages to engage the customer in a personal way The experience dimension has moved into a predominant place since the 1990s fueled by an expanding global and digital economy In developed countries people get richer and more individualized and having met all basic material needs they focus increasingly on personal development and self realization Demand for experience based products increases such as tourism and sports as well as film music and other contents of media and interactive technologies Furthermore the demand for experience values is extended to include any product and dimension of modern societies such as the design of houses furniture clothes cars computers etc This is not a completely new story Commercial entertainment and design has been around for a century or so And in addition universal values of love sex belief family and the meaning of life have always been vital to human beings What is new is the fact that capitalism is invading more and more fields of experiences connected with emotions and the extension of life proportions In all developed countries and increasingly on a global scale a series of expanding industries have emerged to supply the market with experience oriented goods In this book the business development of markets and industries is covered from tourism to media and entertainment and from design to sex including
