AI-Mediated Language Education in the Metaverse Era Yu-Ju Lan, Grace Yue Qi, Dorothy Chun, 2025-10-13. This book provides open discussions and dialogues around the latest research and development on applying AI and ubiquitous technologies into various language learning contexts. Living in the Metaverse era, arguably a turning point in the evolution of the Internet, it is vital for researchers and practitioners to rethink and reconsider human and AI relationships in transforming the way we teach, learn, and live in everyday life. Reinders et al. (2022) amongst Computer Assisted Language Learning (CALL) researchers have emphasised the need to conduct more research on language learning in the classroom and beyond that makes real connections with what language learners do for their learning today. More importantly, language educators must find ways to support language learning in this new era. What is urgently needed is a consolidation and synthesis of theoretical foundations, visions, and the latest research findings and practices on the integration of AI and ubiquitous technologies and language education from diverse perspectives. This book, comprising of contributions regarding contextualised AI mediated language learning and teaching, provides researchers, practitioners, and teacher educators with an opportunity to closely engage in research informed practices and intellectual dialogues on potential opportunities and challenges in the Metaverse era. It also helps to facilitate the development of equitable, sustainable, and just practices for the diversity of language learners today.

Media Management and Artificial Intelligence Alex Connock, 2022-11-18. This cutting edge textbook examines contemporary media business models in the context of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and digital transformation. AI has dramatically impacted media production and distribution, from recommendation engines to synthetic humans, from video to text, tools to natural language models. AI is really the change agent of the media industry, answered a natural language generation model when AI was asked about the subject of this book. It will open incredible opportunities. This book seeks to explore them. The media is examined through four sections: Principles maps business models and the key tools of AI; Platforms covers distribution channels in Games, Streamers, Social Networks, Broadcast, and Digital Publishing; Producers covers the engines of content making including Scripted Entertainment, Factual Content, Marketing, Creators, and Music; Finally, Pioneers covers emerging sectors of Podcasting, Esports, the Metaverse, and other AI driven developments. Then in each chapter, a standard value creation model is applied, mapping a single sector through development, production, distribution, and monetisation. Diverse case studies are analysed from India, Nigeria, South Korea, South Africa, France, the Netherlands, the US, the UK.
