Identity Parades Richard Kirkland, 2002-02-01 Identity Parades investigates the role and importance of identity politics in modern Northern Irish society Through a discussion of the kinds of texts that are often overlooked in analyses of culture in the North such as film biography popular fiction and travel writing the book charts the rise of identity as an increasingly popular way of defining individual and communal affiliation and considers its importance within Northern Irish political discourse as a whole In this Identity Parades identifies not only the possibilities but also the limits of identitarian thinking and describes the ways in which identity positions in the North can become troubled fossilised and self parodic

Hernández-Mendo, M. Teresa Anguera, Verónica Morales-Sánchez, Jose María Carames Tejedor, 2023-01-20 Exploded Views Jonathan Eburne, 2025-04-08 Idiosyncratic essays use their exploded forms to examine how inquiry functions Insect galls time memory systems orgone energy and a bookstore that doesn't yet exist These disparate topics have persistently fascinated scholar Jonathan P Eburne yet each defied his previous efforts at classification through scholarly writing resulting in five essays suspended in process In Exploded Views Eburne returns to these essays with the metaphorical tool of the exploded view diagram expanding them into entirely new hybrid forms that unpack their inspirations and trace the wayward paths they followed An experiment into the nature of inquiry that spelunks rather than shies from the rabbit holes of scholarly curiosity each essay gives way to sidelights and dilations to reveal the palimpsest of knowledge hiding beneath the surface of the academic form A book about process the process of turning ideas into things and vice versa as well as the particular tendency for research scholarly inquiry and critical writing to come apart and go awry Exploded Views is a refreshing exploration of how the tools of creative critical thinking work at their most basic level Reflecting on the methods of scholarly knowledge production and the contextual factors that shape new ideas Eburne boldly replaces the seamlessness of the finished manuscript with the friction and even messiness of the incomplete inviting readers to think in new and invigorating ways Popular Photography, 1984-03 Diseases of the Eye George Andreas Berry, 1889 Vision
