He Seemed Normal ... Mary Gulla,2024-06-03 He Seemed Normal I used to think people could see my anxiety at least until I played violin in concert as a child My Dad recorded the performance I didn't recognize the composed person who was supposed to be me I have always been an anxious person with a learning disability To compensate I've learned one strategy never fails When trying something new ask friends to join in so you can figure it out together That's how I approached dating and the search for my Manicorn These are the dates and the men who made them in one way or another unforgettable
