Researchers Guide To Archives And Regional History Sources:

Researcher's Guide to Archives and Regional History Sources John C. Larsen, 1988 List of Acquisitions of Archives and Records Management Literature in the National Archives Library Archives Library Information Center (U.S.), 1988 Working in the Archives Alexis E. Ramsey, Wendy B Sharer, Barbara L'Eplattenier, Lisa Mastrangelo- Do Not Use, 2009-12-14 Archival research of any magnitude can be daunting With this in mind Alexis E Ramsey Wendy B Sharer Barbara L Eplattenier and Lisa Mastrangelo have developed an indispensable volume for the first time researcher as well as the seasoned scholar Working in the Archives is a guide to the world of rhetoric and composition archives from locating an archival source and its materials to establishing one's own collection of archival materials This practical volume provides insightful information on a variety of helpful topics such as basic archival theory processes and principles the use of hidden or digital archives the intricacies of searching for and using letters and photographs strategies for addressing the dilemmas of archival organization without damaging the provenance of materials the benefits of seeking sources outside academia and the difficult yet often rewarding aspects of research on the Internet Working in the Archives moves beyond the basics to discuss the more personal and emotional aspects of archival work through the inclusion of interviews with experienced researchers such as Lyn e Lewis Gaillet Peter Mortensen Kathryn Fitzgerald Kenneth Lindblom and David Gold Each shares his or her personal stories of the joys and challenges that face today's researchers Packed with useful recommendations this volume draws on the knowledge and experiences of experts to present a well rounded guidebook to the often winding paths of academic archival investigation These in depth yet user friendly essays provide crucial answers to the myriad questions facing both fledgling and practiced researchers making Working in the Archives an essential resource Business Archival Sources for the Local Historian Ciarán Ó hÓgartaigh, Margaret Ó hÓgartaigh, 2010 This book provides a practical guide to the major collections of business archives for the whole of Ireland and to their appropriate use in historical research Irish historians engagement with the accounting and business fields is discussed and the work to date in business history in Ireland is surveyed The guide also features an introduction to the authors electronic database of select accounting and corporate governance archives held in the National Archives of Ireland and the Public Record Office Northern Ireland listed in an appendix Researcher's Guide to Archives and Regional History Sources John C. Larsen, 1988 Tracing Your Coalmining Ancestors Brian Elliott, 2014-02-11 A meticulous mixture of social and family history Whether or not you have mining connections this is an interesting socio economic read Your Family Tree In the 1920s there were over a million coalminers working in over 3000 collieries across Great Britain and the industry was one of the most important and powerful in British history It dominated the lives of generations of individuals their families and communities and its legacy is still with us today many of us have a coalmining ancestor Yet family historians often have problems in researching their mining forebears Locating the relevant records finding the sites of the pits and understanding the work involved and its historical background can be perplexing That is why Brian Elliott's concise authoritative and practical handbook will be so useful for it guides researchers through these obstacles and opens up the broad range of sources they can go to in order to get a vivid insight into the lives and experiences of coalminers in the past His overview of the coalmining history and the case studies and research tips he provides will make his book rewarding reading for anyone looking for a general introduction to this major aspect of Britain's industrial heritage His directory of regional and national sources and his commentary on them will make this guide an essential tool for family historians searching for an ancestor who worked in coalmining underground on the pit top or just lived in a mining community As featured in Who Do You Think You Are Magazine and the Barnsley Chronicle

A House Through Time David Olusoga, Melanie Backe-Hansen, 2020-05-14 A very readable history of the British way of life viewed through its homes Choice Magazine In recent years house histories have become the new frontier of popular participatory history People many of whom have already embarked upon that great adventure of genealogical research and who have encountered their ancestors in the archives and uncovered family secrets are now turning to the secrets contained within the four walls of their homes and in doing so finding a direct link to earlier generations And it is ordinary homes not grand public buildings or the mansions of the rich that have all the best stories As with the television series A House Through Time offers readers not only the tools to explore the histories of their own homes but also a vividly readable history of the British city the forces of industry disease mass transportation crime and class The rises and falls the shifts in the fortunes of neighbourhoods and whole cities are here tracing the often surprising journey one single house can take from an elegant dwelling in a fashionable district to a tenement for society's rejects Packed with remarkable human stories David Olusoga and Melanie Backe Hansen give us a phenomenal insight into living history a history we can see every day on the streets where we live And it reminds us that it is at home that we are truly ourselves It is there that the honest face of life can be seen At home behind closed doors and drawn curtains we live out our inner lives and family lives Information-Finding and the Research Process Antony E.
