Residents Recollections:

Remembering Home Habib Chaudhury, 2008-06-23 Research has shown that stimulating early memories can have positive effects for persons with dementia or related disorders and can energize the relationships between such persons and their families friends and caregivers Remembering Home emphasizes the importance of home in the lives of memory challenged adults offers insight into the richness and variety of life experiences associated with the idea of home and suggests ways in which caregivers can encourage reminiscences to improve the quality of life for those with dementia or associated diseases This volume advances the goals of affirming the dignity of and reinforcing personhood in adults with debilitating memory loss Environmental gerontologist Habib Chaudhury draws on research and fieldwork along with the stories and actions of persons with dementia and their loved ones to discuss dementia and the concept of self He shows how recollections of home can reach persons with compromised mental capacity and he shares techniques designed to spark conversation and stimulate participation in group and one on one activities Chaudhury encourages health care professionals and activity leaders to embrace a personhood affirming mode of care and provides tools and information for nonprofessionals who want to connect with understand and better appreciate people with dementia

The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis Christian Sandbjerg Hansen, 2021-04-05 This book investigates the sociohistorical making of place and people in Copenhagen from around 1900 to the present day Drawing inspiration from Pierre Bourdieu's sociology of social space and symbolic power and from Loïc Wacquant's hypothesis of advanced marginality and territorial stigmatisation the book explores the genesis and development of the notorious neighbourhood of Copenhagen North West As an extraordinary place the North West provides an illustrative case of Danish welfare and urban history that questions the epitome on inclusive Copenhagen Through detailed empirical analysis the book spotlights three angles and entanglements of the social history of this area of Copenhagen the production of socio spatial constructions and authoritative categorisations of the neighbourhood especially by the state and the media the local social pedagogical interventions and symbolic boundary drawings by welfare agencies in the neighbourhood and the residents subjective experiences of place social divisions and dishonour In this way The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis analyses how social symbolical and spatial structures dynamically intertwine and contribute to the fashioning of divisions of inequality and marginality in the city over the course of some 125 years It will appeal to scholars of sociology urban studies and urban history with interests in social welfare

Life in a Black Community , Hannah Jopling, 2015-06-09 Life in a Black Community Striving for Equal Citizenship in Annapolis Maryland 1902 1952 tells the story of a struggle over what it meant to be a citizen of a democracy For blacks membership in a democracy meant full and equal participation in the life of the town For most whites it meant the full participation of only its white citizens based on the presumption that their black neighbors were less than equal citizens and had to be kept down All the dramas of the Jim Crow era lynching the KKK and disenfranchisement but also black boycotts petitioning for redress of grievances lawsuits and political activism occurred in Annapolis As they were challenging white prejudice and discrimination tenacious black citizens advanced themselves and enriched their own world of churches shops clubs and bars It took grit for black families to survive As they pressed on life slowly improved for some Life in a Black Community recounts the tactics blacks used to gain equal rights details the methods whites employed to deny or curtail their rights and explores a range of survival and advancement strategies used by black families Racing the Storm Hillary

Potter,2007-08-02 On August 29 2005 Hurricane Katrina hit land and gravely affected the lives of many people in the states along the Gulf Coast Katrina went beyond demonstrating the devastating natural effects of a hurricane by exposing the continuing significance of race relations and racial stereotyping in U S society Racing the Storm serves to highlight the race based perceptions of and responses to Katrina survivors by governmental entities volunteers the media and the general public Scholars from a variety of disciplines take on the task of analyzing the social phenomena and racial implications surrounding Hurricane Katrina Culture, Ritual and Revolution in Vietnam Shaun Kingsley Malarney,2020-01-10

Originally published in 2002 Culture Ritual and Revolution in Vietnam is a study of the history and consequences of the revolutionary campaign to transform culture and ritual in northern Vietnam Based upon official documents and several years of field research in Thinh Liet Commune a Red River delta community near Hanoi it provides the first detailed account of the nature of revolutionary cultural reforms in Vietnam as how those reforms continue to animate contemporary socio cultural life The study examines the key foci of revolutionary cultural change such as the articulation of a new moral system the attempts to eliminate explanations that invoke supernatural causality the creation of socialist weddings and funerals and the development of innovation ties to commemorate war dead By examining debates over culture ritual and morality that have emerged between residents notably between men and women and party members and non party members the study shows how ideas and values that preceded the revolution have entered into a creative dialogue with those that were articulated by the revolution and how this has produced an innovative set of ritual and other practices particularly since the relaxation of the cultural reform agenda in the post 1986 period Personal Reminiscences and Recollections of Forty-six Years'
