Geographies of Economies Roger Lee, Jane Wills, 2014-05-01 Setting out to explore the intersections of economy and geography this book brings together contributions from the world's top economic geographers. Over forty contributors draw upon contemporary theory and experience to explore the cultural and social constitution of economic geographies, processes of globalisation and new forms of political regulation and practice. Although focusing upon new economic geography, the book also illustrates the many connections with previous scholarship as scholars seek to reconstruct the traditions of political economy to understand the contemporary world. Highlighting and illustrating contemporary developments, the book opens up discussion about the implications of the complex geographies involved. In pointing to new directions of research and debate, this major statement in the state of the art economic geography demonstrates the central relevance of economic geography not only in understanding the trajectories of change but in proposing alternatives.

Educational Outcomes for the Canadian Workplace Jane Stobo Gaskell, Kjell Rubenson, 2004-01-01. Scratching the Surface Enakshi Dua, Angela Robertson, 1999. Scratching the Surface brings together 14 anti-racist feminists who examine ways in which race and gender interact to shape the lives of women of colour in Canada. This collection of articles covers a broad range of topics such as the impact of colonialism and its associated discourses on First Nations and other groups of colonized women, racism in the Canadian labour movement, the impact of globalization on women of colour, the ways in which the institution of the nuclear family shapes racism, sexism in communities of colour, and the ways in which the women's movement can create an anti-racist praxis. The book not only provides exciting new insights into how women of colour experience Canadian society but also provides instructors with a textbook that integrates anti-racist and feminist approaches.

Values Based Strategic Planning Terry Quong, Allan Walker, Kenneth Stott, 1998. Virtually everyone—parents, teachers, administrators, school boards, and students—believes that schools must change for the 21st century. But which changes should occur, and whose values should be reflected? Many change initiatives have foundered on questions like these. Values Based Strategic Planning: A Dynamic Approach for Schools offers a complete guide to rethinking the purpose of schools, involving every constituency, achieving real consensus, and planning for change that really happens. The tools and techniques in this book work not only in schools but in any organization that must change but isn't sure how. Unlike other planning schemes, Values Based Strategic Planning involves everyone in the school, accounts for their fundamental beliefs about education, and is delightfully simple to operate. The entire process can be completed in one day, and the result is a strategic plan that reflects the school's priorities and has the wholehearted commitment of those who must put it into operation. You'll walk step by step through the process.
