Professional Development Portfolios im Vorbereitungsdienst Tim Fütterer, 2018-10-11 Tim Fütterer untersucht den Einfluss von Lernumgebungen auf die Qualität einer Portfolioarbeit in der Lehrkräfteausbildung. Bei der Arbeit an Portfolios zeigt sich in Zielsetzungs und Reflexionsprozessen, dass spezifisch professionelle Kompetenzen selbstregulative oder motivationale großen Einfluss besitzen, während personenbezogene Variablen sozioökonomischer Status unbedeutend sind. Grundannahme ist dabei, dass die erhofften Potenziale des Einsatzes eines Portfolios erst dann die Chance zur Entfaltung haben, wenn dieses adäquat bearbeitet wird.

Handbook on Teacher Portfolios for Evaluation and Professional Development Pamela D. Tucker, James H. Stronge, Christopher R. Gareis, 2002 This research based book provides details on how educators can dramatically increase student achievement. It offers numerous experience based ideas and strategies which can be applied to any school or district. This book will help you establish a results oriented focus on the curriculum, increase time on task and academic rigor for ALL students, provide a supportive accountability system for all staff members, identify and eliminate educational practices that lower student achievement and introduce an achievement audit process that will increase student performance in any school or district.

EBOOK: Professional Development for Educational Management Lesley Kydd, Megan Crawford, Colin Riches, 1997-01-16 This book begins from the perspective that organizational effectiveness will be improved if the individuals within the organization are engaged in developing professionally. It takes the individual as the key resource of any institution and the notion of professional development as the key to the learning of educational managers. This book offers both theoretical and practical perspectives on the key components of professional development, linking reflection and knowledge with skills and capabilities. It then takes educational managers on to consider the systems and tasks which they have to undertake in managing the professional development of others, from selecting the right person for the job to setting up appropriate appraisal systems. This book provides educational managers and those interested in the field with an introduction to the processes and skills which they will need in managing educational establishments both now and in the future. This volume forms part of the Leadership and Management in Education series. This four book series provides a carefully chosen selection of high quality readings on key contemporary themes in educational management: professional development, reflection on practice, leadership, team working, effectiveness and improvement, quality strategy and resources. The series will be an important resource for classroom teachers and lecturers as well as those holding designated management posts in schools and colleges and will provide a valuable basis for professional development programmes.
