Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction The Writer's Craft Sheena Gillespie, Robert J. Becker, Robert Singleton, 1997-09-01

Performance Modeling of Operating Systems Using Object-Oriented Simulations José M. Garrido, 2005-11-30 This book introduces the fundamental concepts and practical simulation techniques for modeling different aspects of operating systems to study their general behavior and their performance The approaches applied are object oriented modeling and process interaction approach to discrete event simulation The book depends on the basic modeling concepts and is more specialized than my previous book Practical Process Simulation with Object Oriented Techniques and C published by Artech House Boston 1999 For a more detailed description see the Web location <http://science.kennesaw.edu/jgarrido/mybook.html> Most other books on performance modeling use only analytical approaches and very few apply these concepts to the study of operating systems Thus the unique feature of the book is that it concentrates on design aspects of operating systems using practical simulation techniques In addition the book illustrates the dynamic behavior of different aspects of operating systems using the various simulation models with a general hands on approach
