Public Procurement and Multilateral

Development Banks Sope Williams-Elegbe, 2017-03-23 The multilateral development banks cumulatively channel billions of dollars annually in development assistance to borrower countries This finance is usually spent through processes that incorporate the public procurement regulations of the banks and it is often a condition of this finance that the funds must be spent using the procurement regulations of the lender institution This book examines the issues and challenges raised by procurement regulation in the multilateral development banks The book examines the history of procurement regulation in the banks the tripartite relationship created between the banks borrowers and contractors in funded procurements the procurement documents and procurement cycle as well as how the banks ensure competition and value for money in funded procurements The book also examines the banks approach to sustainability concerns in public procurement such as environmental social or industrial concerns as well as how the banks address the issue of corruption and fraud in funded contracts Another issue that is addressed by this book is how the banks have implemented the aid effectiveness agenda It will be seen that the development banks have undertaken steps to harmonise their policies and practices increased borrower procurement capacity taken steps to reduce the tying of aid and play an important role in the reform of borrower procurement systems all in an effort to improve the effectiveness of development finance The book also considers the contractual and other remedies that are available to parties that may be aggrieved as a result of a funded procurement The book analyses compares and contrasts the legal practical and institutional approaches to procurement regulation in the World Bank the Inter American Development Bank the African Development Bank the Asian Development Bank and the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development

Principles & Practice of Banking and Insurance Dr. Rashmi Prakash Patil I Dr. Mukul Abasahaeb Burghate , Both banks and insurance companies are financial intermediaries However their functions are different An insurance company ensures its customers against certain risks such as the risk of having a car accident or the risk that a house catches on fire In return for this insurance their customers pay them regular insurance premiums Banks accept short term deposits and make long term loans This means that there is a mismatch between their liabilities and their assets In case a large number of their depositors want their money back for example in a bank run scenario they might have to come up with the money in a hurry For an insurance company however its liabilities are based on certain insured events happening Their customers can get a pay out if the event they are insured against such as their house burning down does happen They don't have a claim on the insurance company otherwise The purpose of this study Material is to present an introduction to the subjects of Principles we would like to specially acknowledge contents of website www.wikipedia.com and various authors whose writings formed the basis for this book We acknowledge our thanks to them At the end we would like to say that there is always a room for improvement in whatever we do We would appreciate any suggestions regarding this study material from the readers so that the contents can be made more interesting and meaningful Readers can email their queries and doubts to our authors on tmcnagpur gmail com We shall be glad to help you immediately
