

Case Study: Proven Success in Recruitment

Securing Psychiatric Leadership to Support Idaho's Most Vulnerable Children

Challenge

A mission-driven nonprofit in Idaho needed a Medical Director of Psychiatry to lead a new facility – quickly. Tight timelines and below-market compensation made attracting experienced candidates a significant challenge.

Personalized Strategy

We shared market comp data, prompting a salary increase and Medical Director stipend. Collaborating on benefits and messaging, we positioned the role to attract mission-aligned physician leaders.

Results

We presented the first candidate in two weeks. Within 43 days, the role was filled, and the physician started just 39 days later – keeping the facility's launch on track.
