

The Proceedings of the 1st International Humanities Conference: All & Everything 1996

The All & Everything Conference has become established as an independent forum on the Work of G. I. Gurdjieff, attracting international scholars, artists, scientists, group leaders, students, and speakers from around the world.

The All & Everything Conference provides an open, congenial and serious atmosphere for the sharing of researches and investigations of Gurdjieff's legacy. The Conference seeks to keep the study of the teachings of Gurdjieff relevant to global scientific, spiritual and sociological developments. The Conference includes the presentation of academic papers, individual view papers, seminars on the chapters and themes in All & Everything, and relevant cultural events.

The All and Everything Conferences are totally non-sectarian, and not presented under the auspices or sponsorship of any Gurdjieff Group or umbrella organization. The Conferences are and will remain entirely independent. They are organized by a volunteer Planning Committee of students from many countries, supported by a diverse volunteer Advisory Board and Reading Panel composed of academics and prominent students of Gurdjieff's teaching.
