Private Sector After Communism:

The Private Sector after Communism Vladimir Banacek, Mihaly Laki, Jan Winiecki, 2004-06-01 The transformation of state owned enterprises into privately owned ones is commonly referred to as privatization Just as important as this process though sometimes not given the attention it deserves and requires is the establishment and expansion of new private firms This book analyzes new entrepreneurial firms that emerge and occasionally flourish after a period of state communism has come to an end The authors rightly focus on the aftermath of the end of communism by looking first at the inevitable output decline followed by an overview of new entrepreneurial firms Specific East European examples are examined and the lessons which can be learned from these will interest academics and policy makers alike Committed and knowledgeable authors in this book treat the sometimes emotive issue of transition developing economies maturely and expertly The result is a volume which will interest scholars with an interest in transition economics and politics as well as those who actively work in transition economies

Enterprise and Social Benefits After Communism Martin Rein, Barry L. Friedman, Andreas Wörgötter, 1997-07-17 This 1997 book examines the evolution of firm initiated social benefits in Central East European Countries and the former Soviet Union

Transforming Post-Communist Political Economies National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Task Force on Economies in Transition, 1998-03-02 This ground breaking new volume focuses on the interaction between political social and economic change in Central and Eastern Europe and the New Independent States It includes a wide selection of analytic papers thought provoking essays by leading scholars in diverse fields and an agenda for future research It integrates work on the micro and macro levels of the economy and provides a broad overview of the transition process This volume broadens the current intellectual and policy debate concerning the historic transition now taking place from a narrow concern with purely economic factors to the dynamics of political and social change It questions the assumption that the post communist economies are all following the same path and that they will inevitably develop into replicas of economies in the advanced industrial West It challenges accepted thinking and promotes the utilization of new methods and perspectives

Democracy After Communism Larry Diamond, Marc F. Plattner, 2002-09-23 The last quarter of the twentieth century was marked by two dramatic political trends that altered many of the world s regimes the global resurgence of democracy and the collapse of communism Was the process that brought down communism in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union fundamentally different from the process that gave birth to new democracies in other regions of the world Were the transitions away from communism mostly like or mostly unlike the transitions away from authoritarianism that took place elsewhere Is the challenge of building and consolidating democracy under postcommunist conditions unique or can one apply lessons learned from other new democracies The essays collected in this volume explore these questions while tracing how the countries of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union have fared in the decade

The Transition in Eastern Europe, Volume 2 Olivier Jean Blanchard, Kenneth A. Froot, Jeffrey D. Sachs, 2007-12-01 When communism fell in 1989 the question for most Eastern European countries was not whether to go to a market economy but how to get there Several years later the difficult process of privatization and restructuring continues to concern the countries of the region The Transition in Eastern Europe Volumes 1 and 2 is an analysis of the experiences of various countries making the transition to market economies and examines the most important challenges still in store Volume 1 Country Studies gives an in depth country by country analysis of various reform experiences including historical backgrounds and discussions of policies and results to date The countries analyzed are Poland Czechoslovakia Hungary eastern Germany Slovenia and Russia Written by leading economists some of whom helped shape local and national reforms this volume identifies common progress common difficulties and tentative solutions to the problems of economic transition Volume 2 Restructuring focuses on specific issues of transition including how to design labor market institutions privatization new fiscal structures and bankruptcy laws how to reorganize foreign trade and how to promote foreign direct investment The articles written by experts in the field will be of direct help to those involved in the transition process These volumes provide a standard reference on economic transition in the region for policymakers in Eastern Europe and in western countries for international agencies concerned with the transition process and for anyone interested in learning about the dramatic changes that have recently occurred in Eastern Europe

Communist China Problem Research Series ,1962 The Private Sector After Communism Jan Winiecki, 2004 Winiecki s latest work examines the hurdles and problems that face entrepreneurs and private firms in post communist nations The Making of Post-communist Elites in Eastern Europe E. Hanley, 1996 Success and Failure of Post-communist Transition Ferdinand Pavel, 2001 Self-consuming Evolutions Mária Csanádi, 2006 What is the politico economic social logic of the operation and change of party state systems How can we explain their similarities and differences in operation and transformation Why do some party states carry out reforms and others do not Why do some collapse and others do not Why are some transformations accompanied by economic crisis while others by economic growth This book examines these questions both theoretically and empirically in an interdisciplinary way The author introduces the Interactive Party State IPS model as an empirically based comprehensive tool for analyzing and comparing self similarities and differences in the operation and transformation of these systems The model describes the intertwined power network and its variations formed by the interrelationship of individual party state and economic decision makers and the structural inequalities in interest promotion It reveals the structural background of the dynamics of self reproduction and its main traps due to political rationality of economic behavior that leads to self consumption of the system during self reproduction It also lays down the structural background of different operations and transformation paths The model is applied to the birth operation and transformation of the Romanian Hungarian and Chinese party states The CIA and the Marshall Plan Sallie Pisani,1991 Pisani shows how the U S added a Cold War Corollary to the principle of self determination massive foreign aid and nonmilitary covert operations to reshape war torn Europe in the image of the U S She tells for the first time the story of the top CIA operatives who were instrumental in developing the non military covert intervention policies of the early Cold War years and the Office of Policy Coordination that carried them out Fascism, communism Albert Weisbord,1937
