Communist Party through mass campaigns such as the 1956 7 Hundred Flowers movement the Cultural Revolution the April Fifth Movement of 1976 Democracy Wall and the 1989 Democracy Movement The author provides the most detailed and complete picture of workers protest in China to date and locates their position within the context of Chinese political history Chinese Workers demonstrates that the image of Chinese workers as politically conformist and reliable supporters of the Communist Party does not match the realities of industrial life in China Recent outbreaks of protest by workers are less of a departure from the past than is generally realized China's Road to Disaster: Mao, Central Politicians and Provincial Leaders in the Great Leap Forward, 1955-59 Frederick C Teiwes, Warren Sun, 2016-07-01 This text analyzes the dramatic shifts in Chinese Communist Party economic policy during the mid to late 1950s which eventually resulted in 30 to 45 million deaths through starvation as a result of the failed policies of the Great Leap Forward Teiwes examines both the substance and the process of economic policy making in that period explaining how the rational policies of opposing rash advance in 1956 57 gave way to the fanciful policies of the Great Leap and assessing responsibility for the failure to adjust adequately those policies even as signs of disaster began to reach higher level decision makers In telling this story Teiwes focuses on key participants in the process throughout both rational and utopian phases Mao other top leaders central economic bureaucracies and local party leaders The analysis rejects both of the existing influential explanations in the field the long dominant power politics approach focusing on alleged clashes within the top leadership and David Bachman's recent institutional interpretation of the origins of the Great Leap Instead this study presents a detailed picture of an exceptionally Mao dominated process where no other actor challenged his position where the boldest step any actor took was to try and influence his preferences and where the system in effect became paralyzed while Mao kept changing signals as disaster unfolded Revolutionary Movements in World History James DeFronzo, 2006-07-20 This groundbreaking three volume encyclopedia is the first to focus exclusively on the revolutionary movements that have changed the course of history from the American and French Revolutions to the present ABC CLIO is proud to present an encyclopedia that reaches around the globe to explore the most momentous and impactful political revolutions of the last two and a half centuries exploring their origins courses consequences and influences on subsequent individuals and groups seeking to change their own governments and societies In three volumes Revolutionary Movements in World History covers 79 revolutions from the American and French uprisings of the late 18th century to the rise of communism Nazism and fascism from Ho Chi Minh and Fidel Castro to the Ayatollah al Qaeda and the fall of the Berlin wall Written by leading experts from a number of nations this insightful cutting edge work combines detailed portrayals of specific revolutions with essays on important overarching themes Full of revealing insights compelling personalities and some of the most remarkable moments in the world's human drama Revolutionary Movements in World History offers a new way of looking at how societies reinvent themselves Capitalists in Communist China Keming Yang, 2012-10-28 Since 1949 Chinese capitalists have experienced some dramatic shifts in their political and economic life Keming Yang examines what such changes tell us about China's current political situation and future political development making use of both historical and current interdisciplinary evidence Provincial China, 2002 Soziale Sicherheit im China der neunziger Jahre Renate Krieg, Monika Schädler, 1995 Repression in China Since June 4, 1989, 1990 Die unberechenbare Weltmacht Edgar Bauer, 1995 Popular Protest in China Kevin J. O'Brien, 2008-11-21 Unrest in China from the dramatic events of 1989 to more recent stirrings offers a rare opportunity to consider how popular contention unfolds in places where speech and assembly are tightly controlled The contributors to this volume argue that ideas inspired by social movements elsewhere can help explain popular protest in China The Australian Journal of Chinese Affairs, 1992 Journal of Chinese Law, 1991 China's Road to Disaster Frederick C. Teiwes, Warren Sun, 1999 This book boldly challenges existing analyses of the dramatic shifts in Chinese Communist Party economic policy during the mid to late 1950s which eventually resulted in 30 to 45 million deaths through starvation Annual Report - Research School of Pacific Studies Australian National University. Research School of Pacific Studies, 1991 United States Policy Toward the People's Republic of China Robert C. Rowland, 1995 An in depth look at relations between the United States and the People's Republic of China including a balanced view of the complex issues involved in dealing with China
