Polanyi in times of populism

Christopher Holmes, 2018-04-17 The rise of populism across Europe and the US first in the wake of the 2008 global financial crisis and then in the shape of Donald Trump's presidential campaign and the Brexit vote in 2016 are indicative of a seismic shift in the terrain of economic ideas in public discourse. Settled liberal norms concerning ever increasing international market expansion and the political integration required to sustain it have been decisively upset by political forces that whilst once on the fringes now dominate economic debate. How might we make sense of this ideological breakdown and what might we hope for next? This book turns to the work of Karl Polanyi for answers, developing the expansive historicised approach to political economy that Polanyi pioneered. Holmes provides a wide ranging history of economic ideas read in terms of a series of hopeful theoretical visions of order in which political, social and ecological contradictions could be transcended in one way or another. Through this the book demonstrates that the failing utopian visions of pre 2008 economic orthodoxy which have formed the backdrop to the rise of populism today are only the latest in a series that stretches across economic thought in Western modernity as a whole. This book will interest students and scholars of IPE, political science, sociology, anthropology, law and history.

Under Occupation Makoto Arakaki, Daniel Broudy, Peter Simpson, 2013-07-29. This edited volume provides a vehicle for the expression of geographical and historical perspectives on the militarisation of East Asia and the Pacific. Among the questions the authors explore are: How have groups and individuals variously enforced, justified, supported, resisted and acquiesced in military occupation? How have concepts of nationality, identity and self-determination been shaped, reshaped and erased by historical processes? How can communities escape from their perceived or actual dependence on centralised loci of power? Chapters draw upon philosophical, theoretical, empirical and anecdotal evidence. The book is aimed at inter alia activists for social justice and researchers in international and strategic relations, colonial and post colonial studies, Asian, Okinawan and Pacific island studies, critical theory and ethics. Contributors to this volume include David Vine, Douglas Lummis, Miyume Tanji, Kyle Kajihira, Chin-Usi Leevin, Camacho, Andrew Yeo, Mitzi Uehara, Carter Gwisook Gwon, Christopher Melley, Yukinori Tokuyama, Kiyomi Maedomari, Tokuyama, Nika Nashiro, Chie Miyagi, Makoto Arakaki, Peter Simpson and Daniel Broudy.

Ethics in the Global Village Jack A. Johnson-Hill, 2008. Jack Hill connects the dots between what Jesus said long ago and what we experience now in a radically new way by linking the voice of Jesus to unheard voices of contemporary largely marginalised social and political movements.
