Ai Tools Update:

Generative AI in African News Media Trust Matsilele, Lungile A. Tshuma, 2025-12-16 This pioneering volume presents a comprehensive assessment of generative artificial intelligence's impact on African journalism bringing together insights from academics, technologists and practicing journalists across the continent. Featuring diverse case studies from South Africa, Nigeria, Kenya, Zimbabwe, Zambia and Eswatini, the collection explores how African newsrooms are adopting generative AI. Contributors analyse the use of AI, presenters' audience perceptions of AI-generated content, gamification strategies in newsrooms and the barriers journalists face in accessing these technologies. Painting a picture of the complex political economy of AI-driven news production and consumption, the volume also addresses ethical concerns around AI appropriation, highlighting how existing legal frameworks struggle to regulate generative AI in journalism. Positioned at the intersection of technology and African media studies, this book offers essential insights into the future of journalism across the continent. Trust Matsilele is a Senior Lecturer in Journalism at Birmingham City University, UK, and a Research Fellow in the Communication Department at the University of South Africa. Lungile A. Tshuma is a Researcher in the Centre for Communication and Culture, Universidade Católica Portuguesa. Tshuma is also a Senior Research Associate in the Department of Communication and Media, University of Johannesburg, South Africa.

Exploring the Intersection of Artificial Intelligence and Journalism Santosh Kumar Biswal, Anand J. Kulkarni, 2024-02-02 This book studies the role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in journalism. It traces the origin, growth and development of the media and communication industry in the globalized world and discusses the implications of technologies such as Augmented Reality, Virtual Reality and Extended Reality which have helped foster a communication revolution across the globe. The volume discusses technology-centric media theories in the context of AI and examines if AI has been a boon or bane for data journalism. It also looks at artificial intelligence in beat reporting and citizen journalism and analyses the social-cultural implications of artificial intelligence-driven journalism and the ethical concerns arising from it. An important contribution, this book will be indispensable for students and researchers of media studies, communication studies, journalism, social media, technology studies and digital humanities. It will also be useful for media professionals.

The Handbook of Artificial Intelligence and Journalism Aynur Sarisakaloğlu, Martin Löffelholz, 2025-12-23 Presents a comprehensive global overview of AI-driven journalism and its transformative impact on media practices. As artificial intelligence (AI) continues to reshape the media landscape, The Handbook of Artificial Intelligence and Journalism provides the first comprehensive academic exploration of the intersection between AI technologies and journalism. Edited by Aynur Sarisakaloğlu and Martin Löffelholz, this foundational volume brings together 37 leading scholars from six continents to examine how AI is redefining the structures, practices and epistemologies of journalism. Organized around key thematic areas, the Handbook investigates the driving forces propelling the algorithmic transformation and unveils emerging trends in journalistic practice and journalism research, moving beyond Western-centric perspectives to incorporate diverse global experiences and knowledge production Twenty eight original chapters address systemic shifts such as evolving structures of media organizations changing roles of actors transformations in news production routines and shifting patterns of news consumption By integrating theoretical empirical and practical perspectives the Handbook sets the stage for a new research agenda for understanding AI driven journalism on a global scale Containing rigorous interdisciplinary scholarship and broad geographical coverage The Handbook of Artificial Intelligence and Journalism Integrates theoretical foundations empirical studies and practical applications in a cohesive structure Offers insights into journalism practices across a wide range of geographical contexts and engages with approaches that transcends Western dominated paradigms incorporating perspectives from the Global South Employs interdisciplinary frameworks to enhance the understanding of AI driven journalism Examines the sociotechnical dynamics of AI including its potential benefits and challenges for journalism Presents forward looking reflections on the future of journalism research in the AI era The Handbook of Artificial Intelligence and Journalism is ideal for undergraduate graduate and doctoral students in journalism communication and media studies programs It also serves as a vital reference for researchers educators media professionals and policy advisors engaged in digital journalism journalism research media innovation and public communication
