I'm for Real Jean Barrett Groves,2019-09-23 Like most kids teachers asked me what I wanted to be when I grew up That question was hard to answer as a black girl growing up in Harlem in the 1950s When I tried to look back beyond my grandmother to understand my family s past there was an ugly stain on our history left by slavery and then just a dark blur It was said we came from Africa Where exactly I didn t know There was no connection When I looked around me I saw crime violence and drugs spreading malignity through the black community Meanwhile the old staples faith and family values were like walls slowly crumbling down I glanced ahead but it was hard to see past things modeled at home wrong words said or negative messages telegraphed to me in books and media that poo poed my potential They didn t bode well for my future What was I to do The only thing I could I summoned whatever I had in me used my ghetto beginnings to push against and then propelled forward I completed my education developed a teaching career in the NYC public schools and bought a house I felt like I was finally somebody A health issue came along and gave me a one two punch I became unable to walk and speak My sense of worth was immediately placed in jeopardy when I joined a new group of disadvantaged the disabled I had to climb back up to acceptance and respectability and achieve normalcy I asked myself could I find a voice and still make a difference This book is how I answered that It is a story about finding strength hope and a higher quality of life The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases RIF's Guide to Book Selection Reading Is Fundamental, Inc,1970 Something about the Author Anne Commire,1976 Series covers individuals ranging from established award winners to authors and illustrators who are just beginning their careers Entries cover personal life career writings and works in progress adaptations additional sources and photographs Folksinger's Wordbook Oak Publications,1973-01-01 A first rate collection of words to more than 1 000 songs loosely categorised as folk songs grouped by general themes and indexed by title Lyrics and guitar chords Reading is Fundamental: RIF's Guide to Book Selection Smithsonian Institution,1970 Contemporary Poets of the English Language ,1974 RIF's Guide to Book Selection National Reading Is Fun-damental Program,1970 Read for Your Life Julia Reed Palmer,1974-02-28 This book presents to countless
