Enjoy this classic work today These selected paragraphs distill the contents and give you a quick look inside Randolph Caldecott A Personal Memoir of His Early Art Career Look inside the book Amongst the most ambitious and interesting of Caldecott s drawings at this time were his hunting and shooting friezes of which several examples will be found in the pages of London Society for 1871 and 1872 drawn in outline with a pen showing thus early much decorative feeling and a liking for design in relief which never left him in after years In looking at these early sketches we must bear in mind that they were made at a time when Caldecott as an artist was scarcely two years old that although his sense of humour was overflowing his hand was comparatively untrained that with his keen eye for the grotesque he turned his back upon much that was beautiful about him that his sense of the fitness of things of the requirements of composition and the like were in embryo so to speak

About Henry Blackburn the Author Caldecott s output however ranged wider than this he illustrated novels and accounts of foreign travel made humorous drawings depicting hunting and fashionable life drew cartoons and he made sketches of the Houses of Parliament inside and out and exhibited sculptures and paintings in oil and watercolour in the Royal Academy and galleries In the year that he left school 1861 he first had a drawing published it was a sketch of a disastrous fire at the Queens Railway Hotel in Chester and it appeared in the Illustrated London News together with his account of the blaze
