Constructions of Childhood Naomi J. Miller, Naomi Yavneh, 2016-12-05 Drawing on art history literary studies and social history the essays in this volume explore a range of intersections between gender and constructions of childhood in the 15th 16th and 17th centuries in Italy England France and Spain The essays are grouped around the themes of celebration and loss education and social training growing up and growing old Contributors grapple with ways in which constructions of childhood were inflected by considerations of gender throughout the early modern world In so doing they examine representations of children and childhood in a range of sources from the period from paintings and poetry to legal records and personal correspondence The volume sheds light on some of the ways in which in the relations between Renaissance children and their parents and peers gender mattered Gender and Early Modern Constructions of Childhood enriches our understanding of individual children and the nature of familial relations in the early modern period as well as of the relevance of gender to constructions of self and society Books of the Month ,1952 Current Literature ,1951
