The Bride and the Rapture Michael D. Udall, 2025-03-06 This book The Bride and the Rapture is developed upon the basis of the Galilean Jewish wedding of Jesus's day and on how the wedding was set up for a groom to approach the father of an intended bride to ask for her hand in marriage. The Galilean Jewish wedding was very different from the standard Jewish weddings in Israel and Jesus used the parallel of a Galilean wedding to his end time scenarios. By utilizing this wedding ceremony from betrothal to the consummation of the marriage and the marriage supper, Jesus showed this parallel. The author takes the reader through a Galilean Jewish wedding in chapter 1 to emphasize the different aspects involved in such a betrothal. In chapter 2, he presents what the rapture is intended for when it will be and for how long. In that chapter, he presents his findings for the rapture, the tribulation, and the return of Christ, called the second coming. In chapter 3, the author brings the Galilean Jewish wedding and the rapture together to correlate each scenario to correspond to Jesus's end time teachings. In chapter 3, the author shows by scripture analogous comparisons of scripture end times scenarios and the Galilean wedding, proving that what Jesus taught was based on the Galilean wedding. In chapter 4, the author brings all this together: the wedding, the end time prophecies, and related scriptures to substantiate the truth of the premise of the book that Jesus taught his end time scenarios using the Galilean wedding as an analogy for his teachings on the rapture, seven year tribulation, and his return. The conclusion of the author's hypothesis is proven to be accurate scripturally. The fifth chapter just adds additional information in the addendum that a believer needs to know to fully understand these truths as outlined in the first four chapters. A correlation of spiritual truths intertwined with sound reason adds to a better understanding of the deep things of God that a layman like the author will fully understand, comprehend, and use for their daily walk with God.

Blockbusters of Victorian Theater, 1850-1910 Paul Fryer, 2023-11-15 This edited collection of essays details a wide ranging selection of some of the most sensationally successful theatre productions of the long Victorian era: the real blockbusters of the age. Ranging from the world of operetta and music hall to spectacular drama and sensational melodrama, the productions included provide the reader with definitive proof that the phenomenon of the smash hit show is not restricted to modern Broadway. This is a world that encompassed the ground breaking stage technology of Ben Hur, the wide political impact of Uncle Tom's Cabin, and the sheer creative originality of L'Enfant Prodigue. Supporting the star system, productions featured some of the greatest names of the period: Sir Henry Irving, Sir Johnston Forbes Robertson, James O'Neill, and Dion Boucicault. This was the very dawning of a new media age which saw many of the productions transfer to the new world of silent cinema for the very first time.

The Dog Fancier, 1926 Recapture the Rapture Jamie Wheal, 2021-04-27 A highly personal, richly informed, and culturally wide ranging meditation on the loss of meaning in our times and on pathways to rediscovering it. Gabor Maté, MD, author of In the Realm of Hungry Ghosts: Close Encounters With Addiction. A neuroanthropologist maps out a revolutionary new practice: Hedonic Engineering, that combines the best of neuroscience and optimal psychology. It's an intensive program of breathing, movement, and sexuality that mends trauma, heightens inspiration, and tightens connections, helping us wake up, grow up, and show up for a world that needs us all. This is a book about a big idea And the idea is this Slowly over the past few decades and now suddenly all at once we re suffering from a collapse in Meaning Fundamentalism and nihilism are filling that vacuum with consequences that affect us all In a world that needs us at our best diseases of despair tribalism and disaster fatigue are leaving us at our worst It s vital that we regain control of the stories we re telling because they are shaping the future we re creating To do that we have to remember our deepest inspiration heal our pain and apathy and connect to each other like never before If we can do that we ve got a shot at solving the big problems we face And if we can t Well the dustbin of history has swallowed civilizations older and fancier than ours This book is divided into three parts The first Choose Your Own Apocalypse takes a look at our current Meaning Crisis where we are today why it s so hard to make sense of the world what might be coming next and what to do about it It also makes a case that many of our efforts to cope whether anxiety and denial or tribalism and identity politics are likely making things worse The middle section The Alchemist Cookbook applies the creative firm IDEO s design thinking to the Meaning Crisis This is where the book gets hands on taking a look at the strongest evolutionary drivers that can bring about inspiration healing and connection From breathing to movement sexuality music and substances these are the everyday tools to help us wake up grow up and show up AKA how to blow yourself sky high with household materials And the best part They re accessible by anyone anywhere no middleman required Transcendence democratized The final third of the book Ethical Cult Building focuses on the tricky nature of putting these kinds of experiences into gear and into culture because anytime in the past when we ve figured out combinations of peak states and deep healing we ve almost always ended up with problematic culty communities Playing with fire has left a lot of people burned This section lays out a roadmap for sparking a thousand fires around the world each one unique and tailored to the needs and values of its participants Think of it as an open source toolkit for building ethical culture In Recapture the Rapture we re taking radical research out of the extremes and applying it to the mainstream to the broader social problem of healing believing and belonging It s providing answers to the questions we face how to replace blind faith with direct experience how to move from broken to whole and how to cure isolation with connection Said even more plainly it shows us how to revitalize our bodies boost our creativity rekindle our relationships and answer once and for all the questions of why we are here and what do we do now In a world that needs the best of us from the rest of us this is a book that shows us how to get it done
