100 and a further amount of 25 when it came to a second edition Of all Johnson s works Rasselas was apparently the most popular By 1775 it reached its fifth edition and has since been translated into many languages The work is more of a satire on optimism and on human life in general than a novel and perhaps is little more than a ponderous dissertation on Johnson s favourite theme the vanity of human wishes As to its actual merits Johnson s contemporaries differed widely some proclaiming him a pompous pedant with a passion for words of six syllables and more others delighting in those passages in which weighty meaning was illustrated with splendour and vigour For more eBooks visit www.kartindo.com The History of Rasselas Samuel Johnson, Leslie Stephen, 1904 History of Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia a Tale Samuel Johnson, 1848
