Allan Hanson,1983      The Evolution of the Polynesian Chiefdoms Patrick Vinton Kirch,1989-07-13 A first study from an archaeological perspective of the elaborate systems of Polynesian chiefdoms presents an original account of the processes of cultural change and evolution over three millennia      Polynesia in Early Historic Times Douglas L. Oliver,2002 This book presents a comprehensive and balanced description of major aspects of Polynesian cultures using both the accounts of the European discoverers and the up to date writings of archaeologists and anthropologists BOOKJACKET

Pacific Encounters Steven Hooper,2006-06-30 Pacific Encounters brings together for the first time many stunning Polynesian objects collected by voyagers and missionaries during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Illustrated are over 270 items gathered from the major regions of Polynesia Many are from the British Museum which houses fine and rare material from the expeditions of Captain Cook Captain Vancouver and members of the London Missionary Society Ranging from massive images of gods to small fish hooks they are discussed in the contexts of their local use and meanings and their journeys to museums all over the world These pieces have remarkable stories to tell of encounters between humans and their gods between Polynesians and Europeans their respective chiefs and priests beliefs and technologies Pacific Encounters is a groundbreaking book that conveys the wonder and excitement not only of the objects themselves but of the fascinating Polynesian cultures that produced them      The Pacific Islands Douglas L. Oliver,2021-05-25 No detailed description available for The Pacific Islands      Slavers in Paradise Henry Evans Maude,1981      Taking the High Ground Atholl

Anderson,Douglas J. Kennett,2012-11-01 This volume brings the remote and little known island of Rapa firmly to the forefront of Polynesian archaeology Thirteen authors contribute 14 chapters covering not only the basic archaeology of coastal sites rock shelters and fortifications but faunal remains agricultural development and marine exploitation The results presented within a chronology framed by Bayesian analysis are set against a background of ethnohistory and ethnology Highly unusual in tropical Polynesian archaeology are descriptions of artefacts of perishable material Taking the High Ground provides important insights into how a group of Polynesian settlers adapted to an isolated and in some ways restrictive environment

Ancestry of Experience Leilani Holmes,2012-08-31 As Hawaiians continue to recover their language and culture the voices of kupuna elders are heard once again in urban and rural settings both in Hawai i and elsewhere How do kupuna create knowledge and tell history What do they tell us about being Hawaiian Adopted by a Midwestern couple in the 1950s as an infant Leilani Holmes spent much of her early life in settings that offered no clues about her Hawaiian past images of which continued to haunt her even as she completed a master s thesis on Hawaiian music and identity in southern California Ancestry of Experience documents Holmes quest to reclaim and understand her own origin story Holmes writes in two different and at times incongruent voices one describing the search for her genealogy the other critiquing Western epistemologies she encounters along the way In the course of her journey she finds that Hawaiian oral tradition links identity to the land aina through ancestry while traditional scholarly theories of knowing particularly political economy and the discourse of the invention of tradition textually obliterate land and ancestry In interviews with kupuna Holmes learns of the connectedness of spirituality and aina through her study and practice of hula kahiko comes an understanding of ancient hula as a conversation between aina and the dancer's body that has the power to activate historical memory Holmes experience has special relevance for indigenous adoptees and indigenous scholars Both are distanced from the knowledge agendas and strategies of their communities and are tasked to speak in languages ill suited to the telling of their own stories and those of their ancestors In addition to those with an interest in Hawaiian knowledge and culture Ancestry of Experience will appeal to readers of memoirs of identity academic and personal accounts of racial identity formation and works of indigenous epistemologies A website www.ancestryofexperience.com will include supplementary material
