Rapid Situation Assessment Of Drug Abuse In Maldives:

Rapid Situation Assessment of Drug Abuse in Maldives United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 2003 The Maldives has made considerable economic progress in recent decades securing a position amongst middle income nations in the developing world However such development has brought with it a number of sociocultural problems including a rise in drug abuse which reflects the patterns of drug abuse and trafficking in the region This report sets out the results of an assessment a rapid situation assessment RSA using qualitative and quantitative methods undertaken to examine the prevalence of drug use the types of drugs used and the social characteristics of drug users in the Maldives Routledge Handbook of South Asian Criminology K. Jaishankar, 2019-08-01 Although the literature and cultural practices of the South Asian region demonstrate a rich understanding of criminology this handbook is the first to focus on crime criminal justice and victimization in Afghanistan Bangladesh Bhutan India Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka South Asia's rapid growth in population and economy continues to introduce transformations in social behaviors including those related to criminality and victimization Readers of this handbook will gain a comprehensive look at criminology criminal justice and victimology in the South Asian region including processes historical perspectives politics policies and victimization This collection of chapters penned by scholars from all eight of the South Asian nations as well as the US UK Australia and Belgium will advance the study and practice of criminology in the South Asian region and carry implications for other regions The Routledge Handbook of South Asian Criminology provides a wealth of information on criminological issues and their effect on the countries and governments efforts to mitigate them It is essential reading for students and scholars of South Asian criminology criminal justice and politics

Drugs in Afghanistan David Macdonald, 2007-01-20 Afghanistan is seen as a major drug producer but its own people are becoming the victims David Macdonald not only explores the reasons for this but also tells an addictive tale that is difficult to resist Shirazuddin Siddiqi BBC This stunning book provides a first hand account of the Afghan drug problem David Macdonald has written the definitive text on drugs in Afghanistan Professor Gerry Stimson Executive Director International Harm Reduction Association David Macdonald tells a story about the diversity of drug use in Afghanistan that no one has ever told before Ethan Nadelmann Executive Director Drug Policy Alliance New York Afghanistan is the world's largest producer of opium and heroin This book explores the devastating impact that the drugs trade has had on the Afghan people Author David Macdonald has worked as a drugs advisor to the UN Based on his extensive experience this book breaks down the myths surrounding the cultivation and consumption of drugs providing a detailed analysis of the history of drug use within the country He examines the impact of over 25 years of continuous conflict and shows how poverty and instability has led to an increase in drugs consumption He also considers the recent rise in the use of pharmaceutical drugs resulting in dangerous chemical cocktails and analyses the effect of Afghanistan's drug trade on neighbouring countries

Domestic Violence in Asia Emma Fulu, 2013-08-15 This book explores changing patterns of domestic violence in Asia Based on extensive original research in the Maldives it argues that forces of globalisation consumerism Islamism and democratisation are changing the nature of domestic relations with shifting ideas surrounding gender and Islam being particularly significant The book points out that domestic violence has been relatively low in the Maldives in comparison with other Asian countries as a result of the book argues a history of relatively equal gender relations an ideology of masculinity that is associated with calmness and rationality where violence is not considered an acceptable means of dealing with problems and flexible marriage and divorce practices The book shows how these factors are being undermined by new ideas which emphasise the need for wifely obedience increasing gender inequality and the right of husbands to be coercive
